General Information about the University of New Hampshire

Its History

FOUNDED IN 1866, the University of New Hampshire is one of the nation's land-grant colleges which were established by the Federal Morrill Act. The University had its beginning as a College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts as a part of Dartmouth College in Hanover.

In 1892 the College was moved to its present site in Durham, to take advantage of the bequest of the estate of Benjamin Thompson, a prosperous farmer. He gave his land and money to the State on condition that an agricultural college be established on his Durham farm. Although the will was made in 1856, its terms were not disclosed until 1890, and by the time the estate became available in 1910, the gift in land and securities had grown from $300,000 to about $800,000.

Meanwhile, the State Legislature in 1890 took legal steps to establish the College at Durham, and in 1892 the Senior class enthusiastically held its commencement exercises in the first building which had been completed — a cow barn. Four other buildings were ready for use in 1893 by a group of 64 students, including four women.

Steady growth since that time has resulted in an educational institution recognized as one of America's great state universities, with an enrollment of 3,250 students and a physical plant of nearly 50 classroom and laboratory buildings and dormitories. In 1923 the State Legislature renamed the institution "The University of New Hampshire", creating within it the Colleges of Agriculture, Liberal Arts, and Technology.

Two years later permanent support for the University was provided by the Legislature in its enactment of legislation granting an annual income of one mill for each dollar of the assessed valuation of all taxable property in the State. Since then the mill tax legislation has been amended so that State support of the University amounts to about $1,400,000 annually.

Its Organization

The University is governed by a 13-member Board of Trustees. The Governor of the State, the Commissioner of Agriculture, and the President of the University are members ex officiis; eight members are appointed by the Governor; and two are elected by alumni.

Legislative jurisdiction in matters of student government and educational policy is held by the University Senate, a representative body of members of the Faculty. Within the Senate is the Faculty Council which acts in an advisory capacity to the President of the University.

Its Program of Instruction

Resident instruction is offered in the College of Agriculture, the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Technology, the Graduate School, the Summer Session, the Departments of Physical Education for Men and for Women, the Divisions of Military Science and Air Science, and the Thompson School of Agriculture. Detailed explanation of the instruction offered will be found starting on Page 33.

The University confers the following degrees:

College of Agriculture — Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, in Agricultural Engineering, in Forestry, and in Home Economics. In the Thompson School of Agriculture, a Certificate of Graduation.

College of Liberal Arts — Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science

College of Technology — Professional degrees of Mechanical Engineer, Civil Engineer, and Electrical Engineer; Bachelor of Science in Chemistry, in Chemical Engineering, in Civil Engineering, in Electrical Engineering, in Mathematics, in Mechanical Engineering, and in Physics.

Graduate School — Master of Arts, Master of Education, Master of Science, Master of Science in Engineering, Master of Agricultural Education, Master of Science in Forestry, Doctor of Philosophy.

Its Land and Buildings

University lands comprise approximately 2,300 acres. Lands at Durham total about 1,500 acres, of which the campus proper and athletic fields make up 170 acres. The remainder are in forest, orchards and gardens, hay and pasture, and ponds.

There are 24 buildings devoted to administration, instruction, and research, 16 dormitories for men and women students, an extensive farm system, and two buildings and several playing fields devoted to physical education and athletics for men and women. The buildings are described in the center section of this bulletin as a legend for the map of the campus.

Its Services to the State

In addition to its regular program of instruction, the University conducts an active program for the benefit of the people of the State in related fields of higher education, such as extension work and research.

The Cooperative Extension Service, with a staff of more than 65, operates in conjunction with the U. S. Department of Agriculture to disseminate information by means of demonstrations, meetings, the press, radio, and individual contacts. The Extension Service bridges the gap between the research done on the campus and the people of the State on their farms, in their homes, and in their communities.

The University Extension Service conducts an adult education program anywhere in the State where there is a demand, making available instruction on a college level. It takes its classes into industrial plants for a specialized technological instruction or it will conduct classes in cultural subjects in liberal arts. In addition this Service arranges for campus conferences and meetings of State and national groups, and it operates a library of educational films.

Research at the University is a continuing process in varied fields. The work is coordinated through the Council for Sponsored Research. Some research is conducted on an individual basis, that is, the specialist is under contract to an industrial firm or a government agency to do a specific project. But most of the work is carried on by three research units.

The Agricultural Experiment Station is concerned with solving the more important agricultural problems in an attempt to better rural life by bringing science to agriculture. Bulletins covering results of research are available for free distribution.

The Engineering Experiment Station provides engineering research facilities for the industries of the State and the State government. Although it does some independent research, much of its work is done in response to specific requests for technical assistance.

The Public Administration Service provides research facilities for government agencies of New Hampshire through the Department of Government, with assistance from other departments in the College of Liberal Arts.

Its Cultural Opportunities

As important as the classrooms and laboratories may be, a great University would be incomplete without cultural activities outside the regular program of instruction. The University conducts a number of cultural functions, both for the benefit of students and faculty and for the people of the State.

The center of the University's cultural life is the Hamilton Smith Library where there are nearly 230,000 books and a collection of more than 2,200 phonograph records. The Library has a branch for plant and animal sciences in Nesmith Hall and one for chemistry in James Hall, and an engineering reading room in Kingsbury Hall. The Library is a U. S. Government Depository Library. A new $1,400,000 library will be finished sometime in 1957 to provide better facilities than there are presently in Hamilton Smith Library.

The University has several collections housed in various buildings. They include one which illustrates the zoology, geology, entomology, and Americana of New Hampshire; one devoted to more than 500 costumes dating from Revolutionary times; another to fabrics; an extensive china and glass collection; a bird collection; and one devoted to testing machinery used by a New Hampshire professor more than 50 years ago when he developed what is known as the Kingsbury thrust bearing.

An outstanding cultural program in music includes a number of concerts by student vocal and instrumental groups and recitals by several talented faculty members. In this same field the University sponsors a special concert series each year which brings professional musicians to the campus from the nation's opera and symphony halls. A 64-bell electronic carillon plays daily concerts from the tower of Thompson Hall. The carillon, installed in 1952, is a memorial to the late registrar, Oren V. Henderson.

Drama is offered several times during the year by a capable student group, and there are many public lectures, both by faculty and off-campus speakers.

Through its Department of The Arts, the University displays a constant succession of loan exhibitions selected to appeal to a variety of interests. Some of these exhibits are shown in the Art Division of the Hamilton Smith Library; others in the Exhibition Corridor at Hewitt Hall.

Student Life on Campus

Student Personnel Services

University responsibilities for student activities and welfare outside the formal academic organization are coordinated through the Division of Student Personnel. The activities in this area include supervision of student health, counseling, living arrangements, employment service, maintenance of academic standards, and protection of personal standards of conduct.

A student is held responsible for such rules and regulations as may be published in the Official Handbook for Students, and he also must meet such new regulations as may be adopted subsequently by the University and made applicable to him.

The following administrative officers are concerned with the operation of the Division of Student Personnel:

Everett B. Sackett, Dean of Students; William A. Medesy and Margaret McKoane, Associate Deans of Students; Charles H. Howarth, M.D., University Physician; Leighton A. Sanders, M.D., Assistant University Physician; Doris Beane, University Recorder; Donald H. Richards, Director of Admissions and Director of Placement; Paul H. McIntire, Director of Counseling; Frederick M. Jervis, Psychologist; Kathleen Beckingham, and Robert G. Congdon, Counselors; Herbert A. Carroll, Consulting Clinical Psychologist; Gerhard S. Nothmann, M.D., Consulting Psychiatrist; Peter Janetos, Assistant Director of Admissions and Placement; Allison Q. Sanborn, Director of Student Union; Harriet B. Nason, Supervising Nurse; Norma E. Farrar, Coordinator of Religious Activities.

Dean of Students

The Dean of Students coordinates the work of the student personnel officers with each other and with the other departments of the University. He is chairman of several administrative committees, including the committee which enforces the scholastic standing rules.

Associate Deans of Students

The two Associate Deans of Students work with the Dean of Students in the supervision of activities of all students at the University. In the office of the Associate Deans the plans for all social occasions requiring chaperonage are reviewed and rooms are assigned for evening meetings of student organizations. The Associate Deans are responsible for administering rules established by the University Senate and its subsidiary organizations. Assistance is given to students in making financial plans and securing financial aid, as well as in finding part-time employment during the college year.

The Associate Deans work closely with the other personnel agencies on campus, with the various colleges of the University, and with the residence halls and fraternities and sororities in order to allow each student to take fullest advantage of his college experience. Students having questions about any phase of college life are encouraged to discuss these questions with one of the Associate Deans.

Admissions Office

The function of the Admissions Office is to contact prospective college students, to process their applications, to correspond with them, to distribute bulletins and catalogues, and, finally, to select students. The Admissions Office is located in Thompson Hall.

School Testing Service

The School Testing Service is in the Counseling Service. Its chief function is to furnish the schools of the State the benefits of the University's trained personnel and testing facilities. The Service offers such programs as the High-School Survey, the Cooperative Guidance Program, as well as rental, scoring, consulting, and other professional technical services to the public schools of New Hampshire. Other programs are arranged to meet the needs of the schools.

Recorder's Office

The Recorder's Office conducts registration, maintains the academic records, issues grades and transcripts, checks the students' records and advises them of their progress toward graduation, makes up the student directory. Commencement lists, and honor rolls, and compiles other statistical data. Its services include an information desk and reception center. It is closely allied with the Admissions Office. Veterans' routine contacts with the Veterans' Administration regarding educational benefits are handled through this office.

Counseling Service

The Counseling Service, without cost, assists students in discovering vocational abilities and aptitudes, in self-evaluation, and in the development of sound plans and objectives. It furnishes students with occupational and educational information as to requirements and opportunities. Personal counsel and guidance are offered to those students facing problems of emotional and social adjustment. It is the University's official testing agency charged with the administration of large-scale testing programs such as the Graduate Record Examination, the Orientation Week program, and others of a similar nature.

Orientation Week was instituted at the University in 1924. Its purpose is to introduce new students to the University, its history and its traditions, and to help them to adjust rapidly and effectively to college life. During the week new students accomplish their program planning and registration and get to know faculty and fellow students. A series of tests are administered to all students during Orientation Week. These tests are used later for guidance, advisement, and sectioning. Because of the proved importance of Orientation Week activities, all new students are required to be in attendance for the entire week.

Health Service

The University Health Service, located in Hood House, is devoted to the protection, improvement, and maintenance of student health. A well-equipped out-patient clinic for diagnosis and treatment of ambulatory patients and a modern hospital of 26 beds, with private and semi-private rooms, wards, and an isolation division for communicable diseases, are constantly available for students who require medical or surgical care. Registered nurses are on duty at all times. Individual health guidance is given through personal conferences with the University physicians.

Payment of tuition entitles students to all medical care rendered by the University Physician and his staff. Injury and illness which require hospital confinement other than in Hood House, services of specialists, operations, ambulance service, special nurse, or special prescriptions are at the expense of the student. Bed patients at Hood House are charged $2.00 per day. Office hours of the University Physician are from 8:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. daily except Saturdays and Sundays.

Students' Medical Reimbursement Insurance

In addition to the health service available through Hood House, group accident and sickness insurance giving 12 months' coverage is available to students at the University. This insurance coverage is designed to supplement the program of the University. Complete details will be sent each student with his first semester bill.

Durham Notch Hall

This building serves as a temporary home for the Student Union, pending completion of the permanent Memorial Union building. It serves as a gathering place for students. Card games and ping-pong are available. The Student Union Board, on which there is student, faculty, and alumni representation, carries on an extensive cultural, social, and service program, paid for by an assessment of 75 cents a semester on each student. A soda fountain operates from early morning until late evening. Magazines and newspapers are provided.

Religious Activities

Opportunities are provided in Durham for students to practice religion and to participate in religious life. The Hillel Foundation, the Newman Club, the Christian Science Organization, the Phanarion Society, and the United Protestant Association, which includes Canterbury Club, Christian Association, Channing-Murray Club, and Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, are the agencies through which the religious interests and life are fostered among the students. An administrative officer of the University serves as Coordinator of Religious Activities.

The Durham Community Church welcomes students to its Sunday service of worship, and to share church activities through student affiliate membership.

The newly established Student Church, under the sponsorship of the Minister to Protestant students, opens its doors to all students. Its services are held in Murkland Auditorium on Sunday mornings at 11:00 A.M.

The needs of Episcopal students are met by a chaplain who is also rector of St. George's Church. Services are held on Sundays at 8:00, 9:00, and 11:00 A.M. and 6:00 P.M.

The parish of St. Thomas More serves Roman Catholic members of the community. Sunday Masses are held at 8:00, 10:00, and 11:30 A.M.

Placement Bureau

The Placement Bureau assists seniors, graduate students, and alumni to secure positions after graduation. It corresponds with, and interviews, school superintendents, personnel managers of industrial concerns, and others who employ baccalaureate and advanced degree students, calling to their attention seniors, graduate students, and alumni who are seeking positions. It also helps students find summer employment and part-time positions during the college year.

Military Service Affairs

The Director of Admissions has been designated as the Administrator of Military Service Affairs for the University. In this capacity, he is the representative of the University in all matters concerning the Selective Service System and the branches of the Armed Forces. The Administrator acts in an advisory capacity to all students who have questions concerning military service. Students reaching their eighteenth birthday may complete the registration for Selective Service in his office.

Student Government

All undergraduate students are members of the "Student Government of the University of New Hampshire". The purposes of Student Government include promoting individual and collective responsibility among students, coordinating the activities of the student body and the faculty, and acting as the official representative body for the students. The work of the Student Government is carried on by the Student Senate, the members of which are elected to represent all housing units and the commuting students.

New students get acquainted and meet the faculty at Freshman Camp.

Subsidiary organizations include, in addition to the class organizations, Women's Inter-Dormitory Council, Men's Inter-Dormitory Council, Pan-Hellenic, and Inter-Fraternity Council. These organizations deal with matters of particular interest to their membership.

Associated Student Organizations

This activity provides a central administration of business affairs for member organizations. A board of three faculty members and five students approves budgets of member organizations, recommends the amount of the Student Activities' assessment, and sets standards for, and supervises the financial activities of, member organizations.

Student Organizations

Special Interest Organizations

There are forty-one recognized student organizations for those interested in some special field, such as chemistry or sociology, or an activity, such as skiing and hiking, dramatics, radio, etc. In addition there are nine musical organizations.

Methods of Admission

Regular Students

The University will admit without examination properly prepared New Hampshire students who are graduates of high schools or academies of New Hampshire which are approved by the State Board of Education, or those who are graduates of other accredited preparatory schools.

In-state applicants must have a scholastic record ranking in the upper two fifths of the graduating class in order to be eligible for admission without examination.

The number of out-of-state students admitted each year is limited by law to a small proportion of the entering class. Selection of out-of-state candidates is made primarily on the basis of superior academic achievement in secondary school, but such traits as character, leadership, and initiative will be taken into account. Out-of-state applicants are expected to submit the results of the College Board Scholastic Aptitude Test. Under an agreement by the six New England State Universities, after qualified residents of New Hampshire are accommodated in the Hotel Administration and Occupational Therapy curriculums, residents of other New England states will be given priority over those from other regions.

Because of the large number of New Hampshire students needing financial assistance in the form of employment, out-of-state applicants will be expected to give evidence of reasonable financial backing.

Applicants for admission are required to fill out an application form prepared by the University. Copies of this form may be obtained from secondary-school officials in New Hampshire or from the Director of Admissions.

An applicant for admission who is a resident of New Hampshire is required to remit a tuition deposit of $10 with his application. One from outside the State is required to remit $25. If the applicant is admitted to the University, his advance payment will be applied to the first semester's tuition; if he is not admitted, his advance payment will be returned. In the case of the applicant who is accepted for admission but does not enter or who withdraws after being accepted, the advance payment will not be returned. Remittance should be made either by check or by money order payable directly to the University of New Hampshire and should be sent with the application for admission.

Applications for admission in September should not be made until a student has received grades for the first ranking period of the senior year in high school. To insure consideration before the out-of-state quota is filled, out-of-state students should file applications not later than the middle of March. To insure eligibility for financial aid and a choice of dormitory rooms, in-state students should apply during the spring. It is understood that the preparatory work of students applying during the spring will be completed successfully by the end of the school year. No application will be considered which is not complete one week before the start of Orientation Week.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class must show evidence that they are prepared in 15 units.

An entrance unit represents one course of four or five recitations a week for one year. It is assumed that two hours of shop or laboratory work are equivalent to one hour of classroom work.

Of the fifteen units required, each applicant for admission into the Freshman Class must present at least twelve units in college preparatory subjects, including at least three units of English, one unit of Natural Science, and one in Social Studies.

In addition, students entering the College of Agriculture will be required to present two units of college-preparatory Mathematics.

Students entering the College of Liberal Arts will be required to present two units of either a single Foreign Language or of college-preparatory Mathematics.

Students enrolling in the College of Technology or electing Agricultural Engineering must offer at least three and one-half units of Commons houses the Freshman dining hall and an upperclass cafeteria.

Freshman Camp is sponsored by the various campus religious groups.

Mathematics, including Elementary and Intermediate Algebra, Plane Geometry, and Trigonometry. Commercial Arithmetic and Shop Mathematics are not classified as college-preparatory subjects.

Cases not covered by the above statements will be decided by the Committee on Admission.

Every candidate for admission claiming New Hampshire residence shall be required to complete a form which contains a statement to the effect that his parents are legally domiciled in the State of New Hampshire and that their names have appeared on the check list of the town or city of domicile for the entire past year. This statement must be notarized before an official authorized to administer oaths. Students admitted from foreign countries or states other than New Hampshire shall be deemed to be non-resident students throughout their entire attendance at the University unless and until the parents shall have gained bona fide residence in New Hampshire.

Students admitted to the University must present to the Director of the University Health Service completed medical history and physical examination reports before registration can be completed. The forms for this report are furnished by the University.*

Special Students

This category is reserved for adults who have a definite objective which can be accomplished by taking one or two courses for a semester or two.

*Exemption from these requirements may be secured only through submission of a written statement from parent or guardian which indicates that the request is made because of religious beliefs.

A person who has not been formally admitted as a candidate for a degree at the University, upon presenting evidence of his ability to carry successfully the desired courses, may be admitted as a special student. He may be required to demonstrate by examination or otherwise that he is qualified to undertake college work. Recent failure to maintain good academic standing in any college or university would be evidence of his inability to carry the work successfully.

In choosing his studies, the special student must have the approval each semester of the chairman of each department in which he elects courses and of the dean of the college in which he is taking a majority of his credits.

If a special student meets the usual requirements for admission as a candidate for a degree, he may, at the beginning of any semester by making the proper application, change from a "special" to a "regular" student status. A special student, who does not meet the usual admission requirements of the University, may be admitted as a regular student on the basis of completion of at least 26 semester hours of work with a minimum grade point average of 1.6 in all work taken as a special student. Such a special student must make the change at the beginning of the semester following the completion of the required 26 semester hours. Work taken as a special student shall count toward a degree, if the student later becomes classified as a regular student.

Advanced Standing

Qualified candidates for advanced standing from approved institutions may be admitted. Their status will be tentatively determined by the quantity and quality of the work completed at the institution from which they come. These credits are not made part of the permanent record until the student has completed at least one semester at the University of New Hampshire with a certain average. No transfer credit will be given for courses in which the student received the lowest passing grade.

(1) Such students must file the same application for admission as required of Freshmen. In addition, they must furnish, at least 30 days prior to the time of transfer to the University of New Hampshire, an official transcript of work done at institutions previously attended.

(2) All candidates for the Bachelor's degree, admitted to advanced standing, must spend their last year in residence, either in course or in Summer Session. This requires the completion of at least a quarter of the credits required for the degree.

(3) Regardless of the amount of advanced standing a student may secure, in no case shall he be granted a Bachelor's degree until he has satisfied the full requirements of the curriculum he may elect.

Expenses at New Hampshire

Tuition

The tuition fee is $300 per year for residents of New Hampshire and $600 for non-residents. This charge is all-inclusive, covering registration, laboratory, health, graduation fees, and admission to all intercollegiate athletic events. However, refundable deposits may be required to cover loss or breakage in certain departments. A charge is made for individual lessons in music. In a few courses there is a charge for materials used in making articles kept by the student. Details will be found in the description of courses.

Any student registering for 8 credits or more per semester shall pay the full tuition. Any student registering for less than 8 credits shall pay $12.00 per credit hour.

Explanation of Expenses

TUITION — Tuition for each semester is payable in advance. Students who find it difficult or impossible to procure the necessary funds for the full amount due for a semester may make arrangements acceptable to the Treasurer for a series of payments during a semester.

If a student withdraws from the University his tuition will be refunded as follows: if withdrawal is within four days following his registration, three-fourths refund; after four days and within thirty, one-half refund; after thirty days, no refund.

CHANGES IN RATES — The University reserves the right to adjust charges for such items as tuition, board, and room rent from time to time. Such changes will be held to a minimum and will be announced as far in advance as feasible.

ADVANCE TUITION PAYMENT — An applicant for admission who is a resident of New Hampshire is required to remit $10 with his application; one from outside the State is required to remit $25. If the applicant is admitted to the University, his advance payment will be applied to the first semester's tuition; if he is not admitted, his advance payment will be returned. The advance payment of a student who is admitted, but does not enter, will not be returned.

MILITARY DEPOSIT — Uniforms for members of the Reserve Officers Training Corps are provided in cooperation with the Federal Government. A deposit of $15 is required of each student to whom military equipment is issued and is refundable, minus cost of lost or damaged articles, at the time of returning military equipment.

ATHLETIC LOCKER DEPOSIT — Every student participating in the programs of Physical Education and Athletics for Men and Physical Education for Women is required to deposit $1.00 for a locker. This will be refunded upon return of the lock to the equipment room, minus 25 cents per semester, to meet partially the expense of towel service.

STUDENT ACTIVITY TAX — The Student Activity Tax, authorized by vote of the Student Senate with the approval of the Board of Trustees, must be paid by each undergraduate at the time of registration. The revenue from the tax provides each student with The New Hampshire, student newspaper; The Granite, University annual; Student Union membership, Student Government membership, and class activities. The 1955-56 tax was $9.10. Upon completion of the Memorial Union Building an additional Student Union fee of $12 a year will be assessed.

BOOKS — Students may purchase books, classroom supplies, and other supplies at the University Bookstore in Thompson Hall.

ROOMS — The University has six dormitories for women and nine for men. All rooms are heated, lighted, and furnished. Bed linen, blankets, and towels, however, are provided by the individual student. Each women's dormitory is equipped with a laundry. A service room is provided in each dormitory where grills and irons may be used with safety. Applications for rooms in the dormitories should be addressed to the Manager, University Housing, Thompson Hall, University of New Hampshire, Durham.

Students living in University dormitories are required to sign room contracts covering the college year.

A five-dollar ($5.00) room deposit must accompany each application, this deposit to be forfeited if the room accepted is not occupied by the applicant. The deposit is held as a guarantee against damage and will be returned at the close of the year or upon the student's withdrawal.

Room rent is payable in advance. For the fall semester room rent must be paid not later than August 15, and for other semesters no later than the last business day before start of classes. Reserved rooms will be held only until August 15 unless the fall semester's rent is paid before that date.

Rooms paid for and not occupied one day after registration may be declared vacant and the room rent returned, unless the individual holding the reservation makes a written request to the Manager, University Housing, to hold the room until a later date. The advance payment for the room will not be returned to those making this special request. No room will be reserved for more than ten days after the registration date. If a student occupies a room and then withdraws from the University, his room rent will be refunded as follows: if withdrawal is within four days following his registration, three-fourths refund; after four days and within thirty, one-half refund; after thirty days, no refund. Early application is necessary in order to secure a choice of rooms. Rooms in private houses may be secured for prices somewhat above those in University dormitories.

A woman student, who does not live at home, is required to room in one of the women's dormitories or a sorority house, unless she is working for her room in a private family. A competent house director is in charge of each women's dormitory.

BOARD — A dining hall is operated and supervised by the University for the accommodation and benefit of the students. All Freshmen, except those whose rooms and meals are provided at home or who are working for their meals, are required to board at the

A student wishing to avoid this charge must inform his house director he wants reassignment. If on this same date a room is necessarily occupied above normal capacity, each occupant will receive a rebate of 20 percent of the semester room rent.

University Dining Hall for the first two semesters of attendance at the University. The aim of this regulation is to insure a broad fellowship and to safeguard the health of the first-year students by offering skilled dietetic supervision in selection and preparation of their food. The Dining Hall is equipped with the best appliances for cooking and serving on a large scale, and is subject to constant sanitary inspection by the University Physician. Board in the Freshman Dining Hall in 1956-57 is expected to be $140 per semester, payable at registration for each semester.

The Dining Hall is not operated for profit. Savings made possible by reduced costs of operation are passed along to the students in the form of reduced board charges.

A cafeteria is open to all students of the upper classes who may desire to take advantage of the moderate price and the high quality of food available at the University Dining Hall. In the upperclass cafeteria in 1955-56, 21-meal weekly tickets were $12.

PERSONAL CASH DEPOSIT — Students are urged to arrange personal checking accounts, or to place money on deposit in the Business Office until needed, in order to avoid possible loss resulting from keeping on hand considerable sums of money. Such banking arrangements will also facilitate payment at registration periods. The Business Office will accept and cash student checks.

Financial Aid For Students

The parents of many students at the University may find it a burden to bear the entire cost of four years of college education. This situation frequently is relieved in one or more of three ways: The student may help by working during the summer and in his spare time during the college year; the University or other organizations may grant a scholarship; the student may borrow from the University Loan Fund. A bulletin describing in detail ways of financing an education at the University of New Hampshire has been prepared. Although some information on this topic follows, a student with money problems should request the bulletin, Scholarships and Financial Aid. Included in that bulletin is a list of all University of New Hampshire scholarships.

Student Work — During the college year, some students find employment as library assistants, assistants in instructional or research laboratories, counselors in dormitories, clerks in offices, workers in the dining halls, student janitors, and student workers on the University farms and about the campus. Others find employment in fraternities, sororities, and in stores and households in the community.

A student in good health and of good academic ability should be able to earn in the neighborhood of $150 by working about 10 to 12 hours a week during the college year.

Many students finance part of their education by working on campus.

Two students discuss scholarship awards with the Dean of Students.

Women students who wish to earn their room and board in private families must apply to an Associate Dean of Students, who will supervise the making of arrangements. Freshman women are advised against attempting to earn their room and board in this way unless they are in good physical condition and have had excellent preparation for their University work.

Scholarships

About 850 scholarships are awarded each year through the University Scholarship Committee. Of these 270 are reserved for Freshmen and a number of others are open for Freshman applications.

The total annual value of the scholarships is more than $120,000. Most of them pay $150 a year, though a few pay less and a few pay substantially more. Most of the scholarships are awarded to students with better than average scholastic records and a definite need for financial assistance. A few are awarded solely on the basis of outstanding accomplishment, while a number are awarded primarily on the basis of financial need. In addition to the scholarships offered by the University, in many communities there are available scholarships for high-school graduates who are planning college study. These usually are awarded by a local service or women's club or by a trust fund. Local banks frequently have information about such trust funds. Applicants for admission who live in New Hampshire may obtain scholarship information from their high-school principals or the University Director of Admissions. The financial advisers for students are the Associate Deans of Students. Students with special financial problems should contact one of them.

Applications by upperclassmen for scholarships should be filed by April 15 of the year preceding that for which the scholarship is sought. Applications by Freshmen should be made by July 15.

University Loan Fund

In order to assist needy students to continue their education, the University has established a Loan Fund. After proper investigation and approval by parents, loans may be granted to responsible students for tuition or other college expenses, except that Freshmen may borrow not in excess of $25.

Gifts and bequests for student loan purposes have been received from the John H. Pearson Loan Fund, S. Morris Locke Loan Fund, Huntley N. Spaulding, Dr. James B. Erskine, R. C. Bradley Loan Fund of the New Hampshire Poultry Growers' Association, Agnes M. Lindsay, Charlotte A. Thompson, Dads-Hetzel Fund, Boston Chapter of the UNH Alumni, Class of 1908 Fund, and the Coos County Teachers' Association.

Other Assistance

Luella Pettee Fund — During the year 1939-40, as a memorial to Mrs. Charles H. Pettee, her many friends subscribed to a fund, the income of which is to be used, upon approval of an Associate Dean of Students, to assist directly by small gifts worthy women undergraduates in need of financial assistance. The fund totals $1,883.

Frederick Smyth Book Fund — The income of a bequest of $2,000 in 1901 by Frederick Smyth of Manchester is applied to the purchase of books to be given annually to the most meritorious students.

A New Hampshire end gains ground before a Cowell Stadium crowd.

The Programs of Study

The work of the University is divided so that when a student decides upon a general field of studies or a vocation, he is guided into a curriculum fitted to his purpose. The student who chooses the General Liberal Arts curriculum takes several courses in the subject he chooses as his major, but elects many other courses to broaden his education. The student who chooses certain of the Engineering curriculums, on the other hand, is confined principally to courses prescribed for him, all of which are technical or scientific, except for two or three courses in English and Economics. The other curriculums fall between these two extremes.

Except for the desirability of choosing among the three broad fields of Agriculture, Liberal Arts, and Technology, the Freshman entering the University may delay selection of a curriculum until he has been in attendance for a semester or more. Although there are some advantages in making an early decision, even when a student feels sure of his choice, he should bear in mind the possibility that he may change his mind and that it is well to avoid over-specialization in high school or in the first part of a college career. No one can foresee the trend of the future. Therefore, the wise person is one who is prepared to make his way in more than one field.

The high-school senior should talk over his future plans with his teachers, guidance officer, and principal. Officials of the University also will be glad to consult with him, preferably in an interview, but if that is not feasible, by mail.

Each year, the University gives the entering Freshman a series of tests. The object of these tests is to furnish additional information to enable the faculty of the University to help the student choose the curriculum for which he is best fitted. The faculty advisers and the Counseling Service staff use these tests to help students solve their educational and personal problems.

Certain courses are pursued by all students in the University. English is required of all students in the Freshman year. During their first six semesters of attendance women students are required to take physical education. All men students, except those who have been in the military service, are required to take physical education for two semesters and military training during their first four semesters.

The University reserves the right to withdraw any course or curriculum announced in the catalogue or to substitute other courses or curriculum therefor.

Some of the words used to describe academic work will be unfamiliar to the person who has not been to college. For this reason the following terms used in this section are defined.

Semester. This is half of the college year. The fall semester starts in September and ends about the last of January. The spring semester starts about the first of February and ends in June.

Semester Hour. The semester hour represents one hour of class or about two hours of laboratory each week for a semester. Most college courses meet three days a week for an hour each day. They therefore are valued at three semester hours. A science course with three class meetings a week plus one laboratory period would have a value of four semester hours. In the College of Liberal Arts, 128 semester hours are required for graduation; in Agriculture, 136; and in Technology, 144.

Course. This term is used to describe the work of a semester in a specific subject such as Algebra, American History, or Organic Chemistry. Each course has assigned to it a value in semester hours credit.

Curriculum. This is a plan of study made up of courses arranged to satisfy the requirements for graduation in a particular field, for example, Civil Engineering, Poultry Husbandry, Business, or General Liberal Arts.

Major. A student in the General Liberal Arts curriculum chooses some subject such as English, Zoology, or History as his principal subject. This is said to be his major.

For convenience in administration the undergraduate work of the University is divided into three Colleges: Agriculture, Liberal Arts, and Technology.

The College of Agriculture

The College of Agriculture offers curriculums planned to give the student a broad general education as well as training in the basic sciences and specific instruction in technical phases of Agriculture, Forestry, and Home Economics.

The following degrees are offered: Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Forestry, and Bachelor of Science in Home Economics.

The student is given the opportunity to prepare for specific positions in the above areas or to obtain a general education in preparation for making a living in various farming enterprises. The student should determine the curriculum for which he possesses the greatest interest and aptitude and also consider the opportunities open to him in farming, extension, research, teaching, industries related to agriculture, and civil service work with both the state and national government. The curriculums in the college are:

Courses taken during the Freshman year are: English, agricultural orientation, general chemistry, algebra, botany, physical education, zoology, and military or air science (for men). In addition an elective subject in the student's major field of interest is recommended.

During the following three years courses are taken in the biological sciences, agricultural chemistry, economics, English, physics

(except in certain curriculums in Home Economics), social sciences, additional courses in the student's chosen curriculum, and elective courses.

For graduation 136 credit hours are required for all curriculums except for Agricultural Engineering where 144 hours are required.

Typical courses in the various fields of specialization include:

Agricultural and Biological Chemistry — biological chemistry, chemistry of plant growth, chemistry of human and animal nutrition, physiological chemistry, agricultural analysis.

Agricultural Economics — farm management, cooperative business, marketing, agricultural policy.

Agronomy — soils, fertilizers, cereal crops, potatoes, forage crops, seed testing, soil conservation, soil physics, soil chemistry.

Agricultural Engineering — agricultural power and machinery, agricultural shop, agricultural structures, calculus, surveying, soil and water engineering, machine drawing, kinematics, mechanics, thermodynamics, electrical machinery.

Animal Husbandry — types of livestock, livestock judging, feeds and feeding, anatomy, diseases, meat products, animal breeding.

Learning to make all kinds of ceramics under a world-famous potter.

Botany — general botany, plant anatomy and cytology, systematic botany, plant pathology, plant physiology, and plant ecology.

Dairy Husbandry — fundamentals of dairying, dairy cattle, market milk, ice cream, butter and cheese, dairy bacteriology, judging milk production.

Entomology — economic entomology, insects of orchard and garden, forest insects, medical entomology.

Forestry — tree and wood identification, silviculture, forest production, forest mensuration, use of air photos, forest utilization, forest recreation, forest management, wildlife management.

Mechanized Agriculture — farm shop, farm structures, farm wiring and electrical equipment, farm power and machinery.

Home Economics — clothing and textiles, food and nutrition, child development, home management, institutional management, hospital dietetics, home economics education, extension.

Horticulture — vegetable gardening, judging, ornamental woody plants, elementary landscape gardening, floral arrangement, greenhouse management, beekeeping, orchard fruits, small fruit culture, commercial vegetable production, plant breeding and propagation.

Poultry Husbandry — farm poultry, poultry breeding, judging, incubation and brooding, marketing, feeding, housing, poultry management, poultry diseases, turkey production.

Thompson School of Agriculture

The Thompson School of Agriculture is a part of the College of Agriculture. It offers training on a non-degree level. Any high-school graduate of good character or any student who has completed a minimum of two years of high school and is eighteen years of age or over may be admitted. Two years of class work and two years of summer placement for supervised farm experience are required for graduation.

The courses in the Thompson School are designed for young men and women who are interested in farming and its closely allied occupations. The program is vocational in nature. Because graduates of this school receive practical experience as well as an academic training, they are able to secure employment as trained workers. Opportunities for employment are numerous. The four majors offered are: Dairying, General Farming, Horticulture, and Poultry.

Students interested in this sort of training should request the catalogue of the Thompson School of Agriculture.

Students in Chemistry have many large laboratories in which to work.

The College of Liberal Arts

The offerings of the College of Liberal Arts fall into three groups: (1) General Liberal Arts; (2) Business and Professional Training (except teaching); and (3) Teacher Preparation.

General Liberal Arts

The student who elects the General Liberal Arts curriculum is given the opportunity to secure a broad general education in such divisions of learning as social science, the humanities, biological science, and physical science. Each student pursuing the General Liberal Arts curriculum must pass a reading test in a foreign language before graduation. A major may be taken in any of the following subjects: The Arts, Bacteriology, Biology, Botany, Chemistry, Economics, Education, English, Entomology, Geology, Government, History, History and Literature, Foreign Languages, Mathematics, Music, Physics, Psychology, Sociology, or Zoology.

In his first year, a student following the General Liberal Arts curriculum will take, in addition to physical education and (if a male) military training, an introduction to contemporary civilization, Freshman English, and a course in either biology or a physical science chosen from chemistry, geology, mathematics, or physics. His fourth course usually will be exploratory, an introductory course in the field in which he may decide to major.

In his Sophomore year, the General Liberal Arts student will continue a broadening education by fulfilling what are known as Sophomore Group Requirements. These require each student to take courses in each of the following groups:

Group I	Group II	Group III
Introduction to The Arts	Biology	Economics
English Literature	Chemistry	Government
American Literature	Geology	Psychology
Humanities	Mathematics	Sociology
Foreign Languages	Physics
Appreciation of Music
Philosophy

A student may choose a major at the end of his Freshman year, or he may postpone his decision as late as the end of the Sophomore year. A minimum of 24 semester credits is required in the major though some majors may require one or more additional courses which do not count for major credit. The General Liberal Arts curriculum is intended to provide a concentration in a limited area but in no sense is it designed to prepare students completely for a specific vocation.

Business and Professional Training

The second group of offerings includes several prescribed curriculums giving preparation for certain vocations. These curriculums are: Business (with Accounting option), Hotel Administration, Medical Technology, Nursing, Occupational Therapy, Pre-Medical, Secretarial, and Social Service.

During the Freshman year, students following one of the prescribed curriculums take courses or have programs of courses very similar to those of students following the General Liberal Arts curriculum. The first year, those who are going into scientific fields usually take two sciences instead of one. In general, however, the work of the first year is broadening, rather than specialized. Students following a prescribed curriculum are not held for the language reading requirement, but an attempt is made to broaden the curriculums by including one year's work in both the Humanities and the Social Sciences. Required courses in the various prescribed curriculums in the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years include the courses listed. The balance of a student's program is made up of electives.

Business — accounting, U. S. economic history, business communications, corporation finance, economic and business statistics, principles of economics, commercial law, marketing, public speaking, money and banking, business management, labor economics, plus four courses which must be elected from other offerings in the Department of Economics and Business Administration.

Students choosing the Accounting Option in the Business curriculum take all the foregoing courses except business management, labor economics, and the four elective courses, but in addition must take introduction to business, intermediate accounting, cost accounting, advanced accounting, federal tax accounting, auditing, accounting systems, and personnel administration.

Hotel Administration — chemistry for Freshman science, hotel orientation, elementary drafting, elementary accounting, hotel accounting, hotel engineering, hotel management lectures, hotel operation, principles of economics, commercial law, foods, quantity cookery, psychology, textiles and furniture, circuits and appliances, heating and ventilating, and introductory physics.

Medical Technology — chemistry and biology for Freshman science, mathematics, quantitative analysis, organic chemistry, physiological chemistry, human anatomy-physiology, general bacteriology, pathogenic bacteriology, immunology and serology, and introductory physics.

Students in this curriculum spend six semesters on campus, then register for Biology 61-62 and complete one year at the Mary Hitchcock Memorial Hospital in Hanover laboratory under supervision. When all the requirements for the B.S. degree have been completed, the student will normally also be prepared for the "Medical Technologist" examination for certification.

Nursing — chemistry and biology for Freshman science, human anatomy-physiology, histology and microtechnique, and organic chemistry.

Three years on campus are followed by a three-year training period in an approved hospital.

Occupational Therapy — biology for Freshman science, sociology, drawing and design, crafts, ceramics-modeling and puppetry, general psychology, mental hygiene, psychopathology, human anatomy-physiology, lettering and printing, theory of occupational therapy, elementary processes in wood and plastics, library methods, psychology of childhood, clinical subjects, neurology, and kinesiology.

Students planning on this curriculum must take a series of examinations preceding the Sophomore year. The results of these will be used in advising the student whether or not he or she may continue in the curriculum.

Pre-Medical — chemistry and biology for Freshman science, mathematics, general zoology and comparative anatomy, qualitative analysis, physics, organic chemistry, and language.

Secretarial — introduction to business, shorthand, typing, filing, office machines, office procedure and practice, business writing, U. S. economic development, accounting, and commercial law.

Social Service — biology for Freshman science, general psychology, mental hygiene, public health and sanitation, social psychology, community organization, crime and its treatment, the family, methods of social research, introduction to social work, social research seminar, social service field work, methods of social progress, and genetics.

Teacher Preparation

Students may prepare for teaching in the secondary schools of New Hampshire and neighboring states either in a General Liberal Arts major or in one of the specialized teacher preparation curriculums.

Usually only those who have objectives which can be met in no other way will be majors in the Department of Education. Most of those planning to teach in the secondary schools will major in a particular subject-matter area such as Biology, English, Government, History, Languages, Mathematics. Professional courses in Education required for state certification are taken as electives while completing the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree.

Those students who are interested in the specialized areas of Art, Music, or Physical Education may complete the requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree in one of the following prescribed curriculums.

All these curriculums include educational psychology, principles of secondary education, supervised teaching, social science, humanities*, and principles of teaching†. Other courses are included as shown.

Art Education — drawing and design, ceramics, introduction to the arts, painting—water color and oil, stagecraft, historic costume, home decoration, crafts, and problems of teaching art.

Music Education — sight singing, ear training and dictation, harmony, music history and literature, applied music, music organizations, principles of conducting, problems of teaching elementary school music, French, German, or Italian, teaching of brass, percussion, strings, and woodwinds, orchestration and chorestration, and problems of teaching secondary school music.

Physical Education Teacher Preparation for Men — major teaching subject, minor teaching subject, principles of physical education, human anatomy-physiology, directed teaching in physical education, problems of teaching in physical education, problems of coaching, and administration of physical education.

Physical Education Teacher Preparation for Women — principles of physical education, human anatomy-physiology, recreation leadership, survey of dance, health education, theory of team sports, kinesiology, remedial gymnastics, administration of physical education for women, theory of individual sports, problems of teaching physical education for women, and directed teaching of physical education for women.

Students who desire to prepare themselves as playground directors, etc., may elect to follow the Recreation Option. In the Junior and Senior years this option substitutes for certain courses in the Physical Education Teacher Preparation program the following: stagecraft, crafts, dramatics workshop, organized camping, field biology and nature study, music appreciation, community organization, plus an additional elective in the humanities.

Musical activities provide cultural opportunities for the whole campus.

Other Opportunities

Interested students may pursue courses which give preparation in the areas of Applied Biology, Biological Laboratory Technique, and Pre-Dentistry. For a number of professions such as law, teaching, library work, and so on, the student who can afford it will be better prepared if he takes a four-year Liberal Arts course and then obtains his professional training on the graduate level. A student who is interested in a combination of courses not listed in a regular curriculum will find it easier to arrange what he wants in the College of Liberal Arts than in either of the other Colleges.

The College of Technology

The College of Technology offers curriculums in Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics, and the following branches of Engineering: Chemical, Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical. Mathematics and the physical sciences are basic for all Engineering curriculums. Students who have done well in these subjects in high school will not find it difficult to carry the work in this field.

The Freshman year for all curriculums in the College of Technology includes algebra, trigonometry, analytic geometry, introduction to calculus, general chemistry, engineering drawing, and English. The Civil Engineering major includes surveying in the second semester, and the Chemical Engineering curriculum includes engineering materials.

In the Sophomore year all Technology students take calculus, general physics, and economics. Other courses of the different curriculums in the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years include:

Chemical Engineering — semi-micro qualitative analysis, quantitative analysis, organic chemistry, process engineering principles, unit processes, physical chemistry, unit operations, fundamentals of electricity, chemical engineering economics, unit operations laboratory, chemical engineering thermodynamics, chemical engineering project, chemical literature and seminar, chemical plant design, and mechanics or elective.

Chemistry — semi-micro qualitative analysis, quantitative analysis, German, organic chemistry, technical quantitative analysis, instrumental analysis, physical chemistry, chemical literature and seminar, and thesis.

Civil Engineering — surveying, route surveying, engineering materials, fluid mechanics, theory of structures, general geology, mechanics, heat power engineering, fundamentals of electricity, highway engineering and transportation, soil mechanics and foundations, hydraulic and sanitary engineering, structural design in steel, structural engineering, reinforced concrete design, and writing of technical reports.

Electrical Engineering — electrical engineering components, magnetic fields and circuits, direct and alternating current machinery, theory and laboratory, alternating current circuit theory, networks and transmission lines, transient analysis of networks, electronic tubes and components, electronic circuits, communication systems, industrial electronics, advanced project laboratory for power and electronics, electrical measurements, illumination, differential equations, kinematics, heat power engineering, mechanical laboratory, mechanics, technical report writing, industrial management, and engineering economy.

Mathematics — French, German, differential equations, applied mathematics, introduction to analysis, higher algebra, mathematical statistics, astronomy, advanced calculus, theory of functions, physical mechanics.

Mechanical Engineering — machine drawing, kinematics, manufacturing processes, electrical machinery, mechanics, thermodynamics, mechanical laboratory, engineering materials, fluid mechanics, machine design, power plants, internal combustion engines, industrial management, engineering economics, and writing of technical reports.

Physics — German, general physics, applied mathematics, differential equations, optics, heat, theory of electricity and magnetism, physical mechanics, modern physical theories, theoretical physics, advanced laboratory, electronics, electrical discharge through gases, and advanced calculus.

Other Programs of Study

The Graduate School

The Graduate School, which has offered instruction since 1903, has for its objective the bringing together of faculty and qualified students in a spirit of scholarship and research. The graduate student is given opportunity to specialize in some field of knowledge, and to develop a maturity of thought and attitude toward his professional field, so that both his professional and his cultural life are enhanced. Graduate work is offered by members of the University departments of instruction and research. The work of the Graduate School is under the general direction of the Graduate Faculty, composed of certain administrative officers, all department chairmen whose departments are offering graduate work, and all instructors who are offering courses numbered from 101 through 199 in any given year, inclusive of the Summer Session, or who are supervising graduate theses. The Dean of the Graduate School is responsible for the administration of the regulations and requirements pertaining to admission, conduct of work, the granting of advanced degrees, and other pertinent matters.

Graduate programs at the Masters degree level are offered by the following departments: Agricultural and Biological Chemistry, Agricultural Economics, Agricultural Education, Agronomy, Animal Husbandry, Bacteriology, Biology, Botany, Chemical Engineering, Chemistry, Civil Engineering, Dairy Husbandry, Electrical Engineering, Entomology, Forestry, Home Economics, Horticulture, Mathematics, Mechanical Engineering, Physics, Poultry Husbandry, and Zoology leading to the Master of Science degree; Economics, English, Government, History, Languages, Mathematics, Psychology, and Sociology leading to the Master of Arts degree; and Education leading to the Master of Education degree.

Programs leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree are offered in Botany, Chemistry, and Horticulture.

Graduate assistantships are available in a number of departments. The work required may be in the nature of research, teaching, or general service. For information regarding assistantships, one should direct inquiries to the chairman of the department concerned.

A limited number of graduate scholarships are available each year. The recipient of such a scholarship is exempted from the payment of tuition. Requirements for the awards are: (1) A superior undergraduate record, and (2) the taking of the Graduate Record Examination. For information concerning graduate scholarships, one should direct inquiries to the Dean of the Graduate School.

For a Graduate School Catalogue or detailed information concerning admission, requirements for degrees, description of courses open to graduate students, and other matters not covered above, write to the Dean of the Graduate School.

Round-table discussion is the teaching method used in some courses.

The Summer Session

The Summer Session is an integral part of the University program. Courses are offered by the three Colleges and the Graduate School to meet the needs of teachers, administrators, and supervisors of elementary and secondary schools; students who seek special professional preparation or are working for undergraduate or graduate degrees; students who anticipate courses or are supplying deficiencies; qualified and mature persons who wish to take courses for general cultural purposes. Qualified instructors are drawn from the University faculty and are supplemented by specialists selected for their attainments in particular fields at other institutions. The catalogue of the Summer Session gives specific information as to courses.

In addition to the offerings available at the University in Durham, summer instruction is given in Forestry and Fish and Game Management at the Forestry Summer Camp.

Reserve Officers Training Corps

In cooperation with the Federal Government, the University maintains a Reserve Officer Training Corps as a part of the federal system to provide trained reserve officers for the military services. There are Army and Air Force units.

While the Federal Government supervises the training, details officers and non-commissioned officers as instructors, and provides the necessary equipment, students who are members of the ROTC are in no way members of the military forces. Under the present provisions of the National Selective Service Act, certain qualified students may, upon signing a deferment agreement, be deferred from induction into the armed forces during the period of enrollment in the ROTC. Students signing a deferment agreement agree to enroll in the advanced course (Junior and Senior years), if offered the opportunity. Those enrolling in the advanced course agree to attend ROTC summer camp and to complete the course of instruction as a prerequisite to graduation. Those in the advanced course receive a monetary subsistence allowance of about $275 per academic year.

Students enrolled in the ROTC will be furnished uniforms which are worn during military instruction, when prescribed. A deposit of $15 is required of each student having military clothing or equipment in his possession. This deposit is returned when the student completes his ROTC instruction, except that a reasonable deduction will be made to cover loss or any unusual wear. Those completing the advanced course are allowed to keep their uniforms.

After once being enrolled in either the Army or the Air Force the student may not transfer to the other service. Transfer students Military drill is performed by the more than 1,200 ROTC students.

(at the Junior and Senior Class level) and Freshmen entering with previous military training should consult the ROTC officers regarding the possibility of qualifying for enrollment.

Students satisfactorily completing the advanced course are, upon graduation, ordinarily commissioned as reserve second lieutenants. Students designated as Distinguished Military Students during the second year of the Army advance course are eligible to apply for direct appointments as commissioned officers in the Regular Army. Air Force officers may apply for regular Air Force commissions upon completion of 18 months' active duty.

Methods of Admission

The University will admit without examination properly prepared New Hampshire students who are graduates of high schools or academies of New Hampshire which are approved by the State Board of Education, or those who are graduates of other accredited preparatory schools.

In-state applicants must have a scholastic record ranking in the upper two fifths of the graduating class in order to be eligible for admission without examination.

The number of out-of-state students admitted each year is limited by law to a small proportion of the entering class. Selection of out-of-state candidates is made primarily on the basis of superior academic achievement in secondary school, but such traits as character, leadership, and initiative will be taken into account. Out-of-state applicants are expected to submit the results of the College Board Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Because of the large number of New Hampshire students needing financial assistance in the form of employment, out-of-state applicants will be expected to give evidence of reasonable financial backing.

Candidates for admission to the freshman class must show evidence that they are prepared in 15 units.

An entrance unit represents one course of four or five recitations a week for one year. It is assumed that two hours of shop or laboratory work are equivalent to one hour of classroom work.

Of the 15 units required, each applicant for admission into the freshman class must present at least 12 units in college preparatory subjects, including at least 3 units of English, 1 unit of natural science, and 1 in social studies.

University Fees and Expenses

The following paragraphs summarize some of the pertinent information about fees and expenses. Complete information may be found in the General Information 1956-57 issue of the University Bulletin.

TUITION. Tuition for each semester is payable in advance.

The charge for tuition is $300 per year for residents of New Hampshire and $600 for non-residents. Refundable deposits may be required to cover loss or breakage in certain departments. A charge will be made for individual lessons in music, as noted in the description of Applied Music courses. A charge will be made for riding lessons, as noted in the section on Physical Education for Women.

Any student who registers for 8 credits or more per semester shall pay the full tuition. Any student, regardless of state of residence, registering for fewer than 8 credits shall pay $12 per credit hour.

CHANGES IN RATES. The University reserves the right to adjust charges for such items as tuition, board, and room rent from time to time. Such changes will be held to a minimum and will be announced as far in advance as feasible.

DEPOSITS. A deposit of $15 is required of each student to whom military equipment is issued. Every student participating in the program of Physical Education and Athletics for Men and Physical Education for Women is required to deposit $1 for a locker and towel service, of which 25 cents a semester is partial compensation for towel service.

STUDENT ACTIVITY TAX. This tax, which was $9.10 in 1955-56, must be paid by each undergraduate at the time of registration. Beginning with the semester in which the new Memorial Union Building opens, it is planned to charge a Student Union fee, probably of $12 a year.

ROOMS. Students living in University dormitories are required to sign room contracts covering the college year.

A five-dollar ($5.00) room deposit must accompany each application for a room. This deposit will be forfeited if the room accepted is not occupied by the applicant. The deposit is held as a guarantee against breakage.

Room rent is payable in advance. For the Fall Semester room rent must be paid not later than August 15, and for other semesters during the registration periods. Reserved rooms will be held only until August 15 unless the Fall Semester's rent is paid before that date.

Rooms which are paid for and are not occupied one day after registration may be declared vacant and the room rent returned, unless the individual who holds the reservation makes a written request to the Manager, University Housing, to hold the room until a later date. The advance payment for the room will not be returned to those who make this special request. No room will be reserved for more than 10 days after the registration date. Early application is necessary in order to secure a choice of rooms. Rooms in private homes may be secured for slightly higher prices than for those in University dormitories.

An undergraduate woman student under 23 years of age is required to room in one of the women's dormitories or a sorority house, unless she is working for a room in a private home or is living with her family.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The objective of the four-year Curriculum of this College is to give a broad general education and thorough training in the basic sciences as well as to develop specific technical knowledge relating to the various phases of agriculture, forestry, and home economics. To this end several subjects in the Colleges of Liberal Arts and Technology have been added to those provided by the College of Agriculture. The lecture and recitation work of the classroom is supplemented by practical exercises in the laboratories and about the farm. Seminars and discussion courses are provided for advanced students.

Some of the graduates of the four-year Curriculum return to the farm for the purpose of putting into practice the knowledge and training gained in their college courses, and have become successful and prosperous citizens of their communities; others accept salaried positions as superintendents or foremen on large dairy, fruit, stock, or poultry farms; still others take positions as teachers of science and agriculture in our secondary schools, or as assistants in agricultural colleges, experiment stations, or extension services; and, finally, an increasingly large number continue in specialized work, here or elsewhere, as candidates for graduate degrees.

The College of Agriculture offers the following degrees, depending on the student's field of specialization: Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Forestry, and Bachelor of Science in Home Economics.

When a student enters the College of Agriculture as a candidate for the Bachelor of Science degree he selects his major field of study and is placed under the guidance of the Executive Advisory Committee which approves his program of study. A staff member in his major field is also assigned for consultation at any time during the freshman year.

At the time of registration for the sophomore year the student will be assigned to an adviser in his major field who then will be responsible for approving his program of study. Should a student elect to change his major field of study a new adviser will be assigned.

The major curriculums from which the Agricultural student may make his final choice follow. The College of Agriculture will be pleased to arrange courses of study for pre-theological, two-year pre-veterinary, and other students who desire a specialized program of study.

CURRICULUMS

General Agriculture

This Curriculum is offered for the student who wishes to secure a broad, general training in several important branches of agriculture without specializing in any particular department. A wider choice of subject matter is available here than in the more specialized curriculums.

Students who expect to farm will find this General Curriculum, with its wide range of fundamental and practical courses, a most profitable one. This Curriculum also aims to prepare the student for Agricultural Extension work such as a county agent, a boys' and girls' club leader, or a farm manager. For those expecting to specialize later in graduate work, the broad foundation of fundamental subject matter made possible by this Curriculum provides a desirable background.

Agricultural and Biological Chemistry

Students majoring in this Curriculum receive training in the various branches of General Chemistry and in their application to the growth and development of plants and animals. The methods used in the chemical analysis of plants and agricultural products and in the study of animal nutrition and metabolism are given special attention. The Curriculum is designed to provide a thorough foundation for those expecting to prepare themselves for teaching and research in agricultural colleges and experiment stations, or for technical positions in industry related to agriculture. A freshman who wishes to major in this Department should take Chemistry 3-4 and also Mathematics 11, 13, 14, and 16, if his high-school preparation is adequate.

As this is a professional and specialized field, entrance to it at the beginning of the sophomore year, and continuance in it, are conditioned by a satisfactory record. An early conference with the Chairman of the Department is imperative.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Agricultural Economics

The Curriculum in Agricultural Economics is designed to meet the needs of two groups of students: (1) those who are interested in becoming farmers, farm managers, farm credit representatives, county agricultural agents, managers of cooperatives, or representatives of firms marketing farm products or selling supplies and services to farmers; and (2) those who wish to prepare for more specialized positions in agricultural colleges, experiment stations, government agencies, or research departments of industrial firms servicing agriculture.

The student in Agricultural Economics is trained in the science of economics and in such specialized fields as farm management and planning, farm finance, marketing, cooperatives, consumer economics, and agricultural price and income policy. In addition, the student is encouraged to take courses toward a broad university education.

The work offered is complementary with that offered by other departments and is in part designed to help major students in other fields gain knowledge about the economics of agriculture and methods of making decisions and economic analysis in food production and marketing.

All students majoring in this field are expected to gain a good background in practical agriculture from courses in Dairy, Poultry, and other fields. Such courses are selected by the student on the basis of his interest and personal objectives and he will be advised in the selection of special courses.

Agricultural Engineering

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering will refer to the Agricultural Engineering Curriculum on page 52. Candidates for the Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Mechanized Agriculture will refer to Mechanized Agriculture on page 49.

Agronomy (Soils and Farm Crops)

Persons trained in Agronomy are qualified to take Federal Civil Service examinations to enter the Field Crops, Soil Science, or Soil Conservation positions in the United States Department of Agriculture. Positions in research and teaching are also available to men with advanced training in Agronomy. The Agricultural Extension Service, as well as seed, feed, and fertilizer companies, employ graduates who have majored in Agronomy.

Courses offered in Agronomy provide an opportunity for the student to specialize in Soil Science or Crop Science. Students majoring in these fields must complete a minimum of 21 credits in Agronomy. Those who specialize in Soil Science may find employment in many fields, such as in soil conservation, soil classification and mapping, soil physics, soil chemistry, soil microbiology, and soil fertility. Those who specialize in Crop Science will be qualified for employment in crop production and management, plant breeding, and in related fields.

Well-equipped laboratories and greenhouse facilities are provided for students; also, opportunities are available to study nearby field experiments.

Animal Husbandry

This Curriculum is offered to students who wish specialized training in the intelligent and practical selection, breeding, feeding, and management of horses, sheep, swine, and beef and dual-purpose cattle.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

It provides basic knowledge and training for managing livestock farms, and prepares students for production and sales work with feed concerns and packing plants. Many graduates enter the field of Agricultural Extension work as specialists and as county agricultural agents. The subject matter is basic in preparation for graduate work in Animal Husbandry.

A course in meat and meat products is included. Some cultural subjects are required. Students are permitted to elect subjects in line with their capabilities and inclinations.

The Department maintains purebred herds of Milking Shorthorn, Aberdeen Angus, and Hereford cattle; Yorkshire swine; flocks of Dorset and Shropshire sheep; Belgian and Morgan stallions and Morgan mares.

Botany

Students interested in getting a broad background in the plant sciences should consider majoring in Botany. The principal fields of concentration in Botany are: (1) Pathology — the study of plant diseases, their causes and control; (2) Physiology — the study of plant functioning with such practical applications as plant nutrition and other requirements for plant growth; (3) Taxonomy — plant classification and plant identification; (4) Ecology — which concerns the relationship of the plant to its environment; (5) Morphology and Anatomy — the study of the anatomy, development, and cellular organization of plants, including histological and cytological techniques and chromosome studies; (6) Preparation for botanical technicians; and (7) Preparation for secondary-school teaching.

The undergraduate courses to be taken in all these fields are nearly the same until the junior and senior years. Some specialization should then be made. The student who graduates in Botany may take graduate work in Botany or in the related fields of Horticulture, Forestry, and Agronomy which require an extensive background in Botany. Assistantships, research positions and full-time teaching jobs are more available at present than in previous years. Opportunities for able botanists also occur in government work. Technicians and secondary school teachers may obtain positions with a B.A. or B.S. degree.

Dairy Husbandry

The Dairy Husbandry Curriculum is designed to offer fundamental scientific training in (1) dairy production and (2) dairy manufacturing.

Outstanding graduates from both of these curricula are qualified to pursue advanced study in preparation for college teaching, research positions in industry and agricultural experiment stations, and specialized technical positions in federal and state agencies.

In dairy production the program of study offers preparation for opportunities in (1) technical positions in the feed industry, in the farm equipment industry, and in breed and breeding organizations; (2) positions in public service with state and federal agencies; (3) dairy farming.

Training in dairy manufacturing prepares students for executive and administrative positions in the dairy processing industry. It also prepares for plant and laboratory positions in milk processing plants; and for inspectors of dairy products and dairy establishments in federal, state, and municipal service.

The University dairy herd, together with the daily operations in the market milk pasteurizing and ice cream units at the Dairy Building, contribute to the practical training of students in any one of several lines of the dairy industry.

The Dairy Husbandry Laboratories, located in the Dairy Building and in the Dairy Barn, are equipped for instructional purposes. The equipment includes pasteurizers, coolers, ice cream freezer, bottler, refrigeration units, homogenizer, and a soaker-type bottle washer. The milk-testing and bacteriological laboratories are equipped for chemical and bacteriological analyses of dairy products.

Entomology

The Department of Entomology offers various courses for students who wish to specialize in the study of insect life, insect control, and insects in relation to man. There are many fields open to those qualified in Entomology. There are opportunities for employment in public institutions and organizations, and in addition, there are many opportunities for employment with commercial and industrial firms which frequently employ college graduates who have majored in this field of study.

Students who desire a broad fundamental training in Entomology and related fields will follow the program outlined as General Entomology. Those who wish to specialize in chemical control of insects, and who plan to take graduate work leading to a professional degree in that field, will follow a program to be outlined for Insect Toxicology. These students will be expected to take considerable Mathematics and Chemistry.

Students planning a career in Entomology are urged to consult with their adviser in regard to the selection of electives best suited to their needs.

Horticulture

Conditions of climate, soil, and market combine to make New Hampshire a state with great horticultural possibilities. Accordingly, the Department of Horticulture, with its excellent facilities and staff, offers instruction in three major fields: Pomology (fruit growing), Olericulture (vegetable growing), and Ornamental Horticulture, with particular emphasis on Floriculture, Propagation, and Greenhouse Management.

Students who graduate with a major in Horticulture will have received the liberal training expected of a university graduate, a thorough preparation in the fundamental sciences underlying plant production, adequate training in General Horticulture, and, finally, some specialization in the field chosen. The courses are designed to acquaint the student with the problems of the improvement, production, and marketing of fruits, vegetables, plants, or flowers. The training is such that superior students can pass the Federal Civil Service examinations required for entrance into positions with the United States Department of Agriculture or find positions in research, teaching, or state agricultural extension services. It is usually expected that students will take graduate work if they intend to enter the professional field. University of New Hampshire graduates with a good scholastic record have had little difficulty in securing fellowships or scholarships in other colleges and universities.

Major students in the Department must elect a minimum of 11 semester credits in Advanced Horticulture and related courses, in addition to Horticulture 2, 13, 91, 92, and 94, required of all majors. A special effort is made to see that outside work during the college year and work done during the vacation periods will provide sufficient practical experience before a student graduates, so that he has more than a theoretical knowledge of his profession.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

The extensive University orchards, gardens, and greenhouses are used as laboratories.

Mechanized Agriculture

The Mechanized Agriculture Curriculum is offered by the Department of Agricultural Engineering. This curriculum is designed to provide instruction and training in the fundamentals of agricultural science with particular emphasis on the technical phases of operating a farm. The program of study prepares men for self-employment as farm operators and for commercial positions in the agricultural industry.

Students completing this curriculum may find employment selling or servicing agricultural building materials, labor-saving mechanical equipment, irrigation systems, tractors and field machinery. Graduates are qualified for positions as Agricultural Extension workers, as Soil Conservationists with the Soil Conservation Service or as "rural use advisers" with electric utility companies. They may also find employment with farm insurance companies or agricultural management organizations.

As farming becomes more intensive and the mechanization of our farms more complete, there will be even greater opportunities for men with this type of training.

Poultry Husbandry

The Curriculum in Poultry Husbandry has been designed to offer students fundamental and special training in the practical and professional fields of poultry.

The program of study prepares students for various lines of work such as: production, sales, and service with feed and equipment manufacturing concerns; marketing organizations handling poultry and eggs; commercial hatcheries; poultry-farm managers, as well as for the operation of their own farms. By supplementing his undergraduate work with one or more years of graduate study, the superior student will find opportunities in the professional fields of teaching, agricultural extension, and research.

Major students are expected to take all courses offered in the Department. In addition, selected courses in other departments of the College are required in support of, and as a supplement to, the instruction given in the Department. However, the student elects these courses under guidance, and considerable latitude is offered. Special attention is given to the interests and ability of each student.

The Department works closely with the poultry industry in the state which ranks high among those in the country. In this connection, frequent and full discussion is given in the classroom to broad problems of the industry.

A brief but comprehensive period of practical work is offered for those who lack sufficient experience in the actual care and production of chicks and laying birds. All the facilities of the University Poultry Farm are available for such students. This farm is stocked with both chickens and turkeys, and has modern equipment for carrying on its work.

Pre-Veterinary

Students who contemplate veterinary medicine as a career should elect the Pre-Veterinary Curriculum. Successful completion of this Curriculum will meet the scholastic requirements for admission to an approved veterinary college. However, all veterinary colleges give first preference for admission to applicants from their respective states. The current number of applications for admission is tremendous. The few out-of-state students who will be admitted will necessarily have shown outstanding scholastic ability.

Although two years of Pre-Veterinary training will meet the requirements of most veterinary colleges, it is desirable for a person to spend four years in Pre-Veterinary work and complete the requirements for the Bachelor's degree. It is desirable that applicants to colleges of veterinary medicine have farm experience and in fact it is a prerequisite for admission to some.

Teacher Preparation

Under the provision of the Smith-Hughes Act, the University of New Hampshire has been designated as the institution in this state for the preparation of teachers of Agriculture. Vocational Agriculture offers a fertile field for young men who desire to follow the profession of teaching. The work is varied and interesting with opportunities for wide community contacts through the all-day, young farmer, and adult farmer programs.

Agricultural teachers are encouraged to enter upon a program of graduate study as a means of professional growth. Successful completion of such study should result in greater opportunities for advancement in the field of agricultural education.

Due to the nature of the duties performed by the teacher of agriculture, it is essential for a student to acquire a good foundation in all the predominating agricultural enterprises of the state. His course of study, therefore, will follow a broad general program rather than a specialization in any one particular field. Furthermore, he must meet the state requirements for certification which include 28 semester hours of professional education, and 8 credits of Agricultural Engineering.

SUGGESTED PROGRAMS

Except for minor variations, the required freshman program is applicable to all agricultural students who are candidates for the Bachelor of Science degree. Military Science and Physical Education, which are General Curriculum Requirements, should be completed by the end of the sophomore and freshman years, respectively. "Additional Minimum Requirements" may be satisfied at any time prior to graduation but should be kept in mind when planning a schedule of courses for each semester during the sophomore, junior, and senior years. Beyond the freshman program, the General Curriculum Requirements of the University and the Additional Minimum Requirements of the Agricultural College, a student will select the remainder of his program in consultation with the supervisor of his curriculum.

The following curriculums suggest a plan of study applicable to most students but are not intended as a list of required courses. It is assumed that the program will vary according to the needs of the individual student. It should be remembered that a student must complete an average of 17 credits per semester in order to accumulate a total of 136 credits in four academic years.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN AGRICULTURAL ENGINEERING

The purpose of this curriculum is to train men in the application of engineering knowledge and techniques to the problems of the agricultural industry. A sound academic background in the natural sciences and mathematics and the fundamentals of engineering and agriculture precede specialization in agricultural engineering. Most agricultural engineers are employed in the fields of farm structures, farm machinery, rural electrification, and soil and water conservation. The student has an opportunity to select courses which are of interest to him and are related to these major phases of the profession.

Students who elect this course of study are expected to prepare for engineering service in rural communities; for teaching, research, and extension work in colleges, experiment stations, and government agencies; for positions related to the manufacture and sale of farm machinery and farm power equipment; for advisory and managerial posts in connection with agricultural development; for positions with farm buildings and materials concerns; and for work relating to the increased use of electricity in agriculture. Opportunities for employment and progressive advancement after graduation are numerous in this expanding field of engineering.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Summer Employment

Ten weeks of agricultural employment are required of all candidates for the degree during some summer session (preferably between the sophomore and junior years). This employment must be approved by the Agricultural Engineering staff and the Dean of the College. For those students having exceptional experience of this type, the requirement will be waived.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN FORESTRY

All Forestry majors must take the same basic program to qualify for the Bachelor of Science degree in Forestry. Further requirements are designed to meet the needs of two classes of students: (1) those who desire a foundation for professional or graduate work in Forestry; and (2) those who wish to fit themselves for employment in Wildlife Management. The program for each group is approximately the same during the first two years, although it is necessary to make certain decisions rather early in the course. Attendance at an eight weeks' session of Summer Camp is required during the summer following the junior year for each group.

Forestry

This includes those students who wish to secure a general training in Forestry. Some latitude is allowed in the courses which the student may elect but his efforts are directed toward securing a broad knowledge of the profession. Those who intend to become teachers or research workers should plan to take advanced studies at some other institution, and should elect the courses necessary for admission to graduate school.

Wildlife Management

The Wildlife Management Curriculum emphasizes this field while giving the student an adequate training in general Forestry. This combination is considered essential, as a large part of the country's wildlife program of the future will be handled by men who are employed primarily as foresters.

A student majoring in one of the Forestry curriculums is held for the same General, Specific, and Additional Minimum Requirements given on pages 34 and 35 for the Bachelor of Science in Agriculture degree.

TWO-YEAR NON-DEGREE CURRICULUM

The Thompson School of Agriculture offers to such young men and women who are interested in farming and allied occupations the opportunity to secure scientific and practical agricultural training in two years of study. These vocational curriculums are designed particularly for those who wish to become farmers or to seek employment in related activities. Some of the more common types of opportunities available for the two-year student follow:

- Farming — owner, renter, operator
- Farm manager or estate superintendent
- Herdsman or assistant
- Milk plant operator or assistant
- Poultry plant foreman
- Feed and fertilizer store operator or assistant
- Greenhouse or landscape work
- Skilled worker for nurserymen and seedsmen
- Farm machinery worker — sales, service, or operation
- Worker in retail agricultural marketing
- Milk tester
- Caretaker of estate
- Superintendent, foreman. or worker in parks
- Worker in a commercial dairy manufacturing and distributing plant

Admission Requirements

The Thompson School of Agriculture is open to both young men and young women. Graduates of high schools will be admitted irrespective of age. Applicants who are not high-school graduates must be 18 years of age and must have had at least two years of high-school work or its equivalent.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

Judgment and understanding will be carefully considered in determining those who will be admitted. A farm background, though not required, will prove exceptionally valuable.

Requirements for Graduation

The completion of the program requires two calendar years. The instruction is divided as follows: the student obtains two semesters of classroom and laboratory work on campus, followed by a summer of supervised Agricultural Placement each year. However, it is possible for a person to attend the Thompson School of Agriculture for only two or more semesters plus Agricultural Placement and acquire considerable valuable information, and first-hand knowledge of farming. Upon satisfactory completion of four semesters on campus, with a minimum of 64 semester credits plus two summers of Agricultural Placement in the order described, the student will be awarded a certificate of graduation.

The Agricultural Placement will be adapted to the personal needs and interests of the individual. This work may be conducted on the home farm, on some good commercial farm known to the student, or in some related agricultural occupation in which the student plans to engage. All placement situations selected by the student, through his own initiative, must be approved by the school staff. Every effort will be made to find suitable placement positions for students who are unable to locate such positions for themselves.

This practical training, required during each summer, will be under the direct guidance and supervision of the teaching staff. Certain records and reports are required of the student while on placement, and no student will be granted a certificate until such records and reports are complete.

Major Fields of Instruction

There are four major fields of instruction: Dairying, General Farming, Horticulture, and Poultry. The student will select the one he wishes to pursue and may elect courses in other fields in order to provide for a well-balanced program.

Facilities for Instruction

Facilities of the University, including the University Farm, Dairy Herd, Milk Plant, Poultry Plant, Horticulture Farm, Livestock Department, Greenhouses, and laboratories, are available for instructional purposes.

Student Aid

Employment is usually available for the student who needs it and is willing to work. Tuition grants amounting to approximately one half the tuition are available for residents of New Hampshire. These tuition grants will be awarded to such applicants as appear upon investigation to be needy and deserving. It is hoped that every worthy individual who could not otherwise attend may be helped in this way. However, these funds are by no means inexhaustible and prospective students are urged to apply early if they need help.

Additional Information

Persons who are interested in the Thompson School of Agriculture should write for a complete descriptive catalogue. Such requests should be made to the Thompson School of Agriculture, 14 Putnam Hall, University of New Hampshire, Durham, N. H.

The Departments of Chemistry, Mathematics, and Physics in the College of Technology and the Departments of Botany and Entomology in the College of Agriculture offer major programs for students in the College of Liberal Arts.

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

The College of Liberal Arts exists to serve society through meeting the vital educational needs on the campus or in the state. While it prepares some students for scholarly achievement in graduate and professional schools and prepares others for immediate gainful service, it develops in all its students understanding, interests, appreciation, and abilities which make possible the living of a richer and more satisfying life.

It is the purpose of the College of Liberal Arts to help all its students to become better adjusted to the world in which they live, to increase their efficiency as students, to learn how to work and to enjoy work as well as leisure, to solve their college and life problems, and to prepare themselves for intelligent participation in the activities of modern life as socially competent human beings willing to meet their responsibilities to society.

To accomplish its general educational purpose, the College of Liberal Arts cooperates with its students in their efforts to acquire:

(1) The ability to understand and use language, particularly English, for clear and effective interchange of ideas;

(2) An understanding and appreciation of the principles of the physical and biological sciences as they apply to man;

(3) An understanding of the principles underlying the social, psychological, political, and economic activities of man;

(4) An understanding and appreciation of all peoples and their cultures, both contemporary and historical, for intelligent participation in society;

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

ORGANIZATION

The development of common interests and the coordination of educational efforts in behalf of students in the College are promoted by Divisions as follows: Biological Sciences, Humanities, Physical Sciences, Social Sciences, and Teacher Education. The personnel of each division includes all Faculty members assigned to departments of the College, and to departments of other colleges which are authorized to offer major programs or prescribed curriculums in the College of Liberal Arts.

The Humanities Division is composed of the staffs of the Departments of The Arts, English, Languages, Music, and Philosophy. The Social Sciences Division is composed of the staffs of the Departments of Economics and Business Administration, Government, History, Hotel Administration, Psychology, and Sociology. The Physical Sciences Division is composed of the staffs of the Department of Geology and Geography, and the Departments of Chemistry, Mathematics, and Physics in the College of Technology. The Biological Sciences Division is composed of the staffs of the Departments of Bacteriology and Zoology, and the Departments of Botany and Entomology in the College of Agriculture. The Division of Teacher Education consists of the members of the instructional staff of the University who are teaching professional courses in Education. These include courses in the problems of teaching the subjects taught in the public schools and the courses in Physical Education, in The Arts, and in Music, designed to prepare teachers.

The offerings of the College of Liberal Arts are divided into two groups: the General Liberal Arts Curriculum and the Prescribed Curriculums. The descriptions of the University Teacher Preparation Curriculums follow the Prescribed Curriculums.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

GENERAL LIBERAL ARTS CURRICULUM

The General Liberal Arts Curriculum is intended primarily to give opportunity for a broad, liberal program, a general education leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree.

A student enrolled in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum will major in some subject or field of knowledge. Some of these major programs offer, at least in part, direct professional training. The General Liberal Arts Curriculum must not be confused with the Prescribed Curriculums. The latter are essentially professional in character.

The objectives, opportunities, and requirements of majors in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum are described in the paragraphs which follow. It is possible, also, for students in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum to arrange programs of study in addition to those described below, although such students will be held strictly to the University and College requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum. Students interested in arranging special programs of study should consult the Dean of the College.

The Arts

The courses in this Department are designed to develop intelligent enjoyment and a critical understanding of art, and to provide facilities for creative expression.

Several types of programs may be arranged for individual students. For those who have creative interests there are courses in painting, sculpture, ceramics, metalwork and jewelry, weaving, textile design, minor crafts, photography, and design. For others who are interested primarily in the application of art to business and industry, there are some opportunities for study in industrial design, advertising art, photography, and interior decoration. The Department also offers opportunity to all who are interested particularly in the critical appreciation of art.

Students majoring in areas in which a knowledge of the arts is desirable, such as Business, Education, Hotel Administration, and Home Economics, should consider taking one or several courses in The Arts.

Students interested in teaching art in the secondary schools are advised to consider the Art Education Curriculum.

Students majoring in The Arts are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 94. They must also earn 24 semester credits, with grades of C or better, in courses in The Arts. The following courses are required for The Arts major: Arts 23, Basic Design (does not carry major credit); Arts 31, 32, Introduction to The Arts. Courses in dramatics, literature, music, and home economics may be approved as related work for a major in The Arts with the consent of the supervisor and the College Dean. The courses of each major program are selected to meet the needs of the individual student, as determined by the student and his supervisor in personal conference. An assigned major work and/or a paper in the student's area of specialization will be required in the senior year.

Students interested in majoring in The Arts are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor G. R. Thomas, Room 218, Hewitt Hall.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Bacteriology

Students interested in the study of bacteria and related microorganisms should register as majors in Bacteriology. Such students may prepare themselves for positions in universities, experiment stations, research institutes, industrial organizations, and in federal, state, or city laboratories. Opportunities are available in the fields of medical or public health bacteriology, animal diseases, and in sanitary, food, dairy, soil or industrial microbiology. Students may also prepare themselves for employment as sanitary inspectors or other phases of public health work.

The program is arranged to meet the needs of two groups of majors; i.e., those who plan to obtain employment after receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree and those who plan to take graduate work in Bacteriology, which is necessary for preferred employment in the field. Students primarily interested in hospital laboratory work should consult the Medical Technology Curriculum.

Students who major in Bacteriology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, which are set forth on page 94. They are expected also to complete courses offered by the Department, and by related departments, to a total of 24 semester credits, with grades of C or better. A course in Organic Chemistry is also required for Bacteriology majors, but cannot be counted as part of these 24 major credits. The courses of each major program are selected to meet the needs of the individual student, as determined by the student and his supervisor in personal conference.

Students interested in majoring in Bacteriology are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor L. W. Slanetz, Room 215, Nesmith Hall.

Biology

Students who are interested in a broad background in the life sciences are advised to major in Biology. Such students will be required to take courses in bacteriology, botany, entomology, and zoology in building up a program. The field, however, is so inclusive that the majority of students will find it desirable to include one or two additional courses in one of the subdivisions, such as Bacteriology, Botany, or Zoology. In addition, to students who desire to study Biology for general education, it is suggested that those who are interested in Applied Biology and Secondary-School Teacher Preparation register as Biology majors.

TEACHER PREPARATION — Students who are planning to teach Biology in secondary schools are urged to plan for practice teaching during the senior year. As few positions are available in any year for teaching Biology alone, a student should include courses in his program of study which will qualify him for teaching other sciences.

APPLIED BIOLOGY (Fish and Game Management, etc.) — Students preparing for positions which involve the application of the science of Biology, such as those frequently listed by the Federal Civil Service and by the state governments, should follow the general program of Biology majors and should elect one or two additional courses in fields of Applied Biology. The Division is well fitted to prepare students for work in fish and game management, conservation education, and in state departments of conservation. Students preparing for professions in this group should plan to secure advanced degrees, since positions in these fields are difficult to secure without graduate study. Students who are interested in hospital laboratory work should consult the Medical Technology Curriculum.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Satisfactory completion of the requirements of a Biology major will generally qualify students for admission to graduate schools to specialize in Biology or in one of its major subdivisions.

Students who major in Biology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum (see page 94). They are expected also to complete courses offered in the Division to a total of 24 semester credits (exclusive of Biology 1-2) with a grade of C or better. The minimum course requirements for Biology majors include Bacteriology 1; Botany 3; one course selected from Botany 6, 12, 42, or 56; Entomology 2; Zoology 7; and one other course in Zoology (except Zoology 87, 88 or 97, 98). Biology majors are also required to complete Chemistry 3-4 and eight additional hours in physical science (Chemistry, Geology, Mathematics, Physical Science 1-2, or Physics). These courses in physical science cannot be offered as major credit.

Students interested in majoring in Biology are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor E. F. Swan, Room 102, Nesmith Hall.

Botany

Students who are interested in plant life are advised to consider registration as majors in Botany. Botany majors with suitable undergraduate backgrounds may enter the field of secondary education or become research technicians. Botany majors other than those whose interest is secondary-school teaching, research technique or a general education, should expect to continue in graduate study here or elsewhere. Government work, institutional research, certain types of industrial positions, and college teaching are open to Botany students with advanced preparation. The principal fields of concentration in Botany are: (1) Pathology, (2) Physiology, (3) Taxonomy, (4) Ecology, (5) Morphology and Cytology, (6) Anatomy.

Students who major in Botany are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 94. They must also complete courses offered by the Department, to a total of 24 semester credits with grades of C or better. Courses in other departments closely related to the major courses may be counted with the consent of the major supervisor and the College Dean. A broad background in chemistry and other biological sciences is considered essential for most majors.

The courses of each major program are selected to meet the needs of the individual student, as determined by the student and his supervisor in personal conference.

Students interested in majoring in Botany are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor A. R. Hodgdon, Room 218, Nesmith Hall.

Chemistry

Students who are interested in the study of Chemistry will find opportunities in different fields such as (1) individual work involving the development of processes or production activities or sales work based on a scientific knowledge of the marketable product; (2) the teaching of Chemistry and allied subjects in secondary schools or of Chemistry in colleges; (3) graduate study for those students who are interested and particularly proficient in their undergraduate work.

The University offers two channels for study of Chemistry; majoring in the subject in the College of Liberal Arts, or enrolling in the Prescribed Curriculum in Chemistry in the College of Technology. In the College of Liberal Arts a major should complete Chemistry 3-4, or 3-6, General Chemistry, certain courses in Mathematics and Physics, and in addition other courses offered by the Department in Analytical, Organic, and Physical Chemistry to a minimum of 24 semester credits, with grades of C or better. According to the student's interests, other supporting subjects may be elected to form a broad program of study and to prepare for some one of the opportunities listed above. Majors in Chemistry are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, which are set forth on page 94.

The Department is equipped to furnish the preparation necessary for teaching Chemistry in secondary schools. As very few positions are available in any year for teaching Chemistry alone, a student should consider a program of study which may qualify him for teaching Chemistry and other sciences, and should consult Professor Iddles and Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education. Students who are interested in teaching Chemistry in college are advised to plan on graduate study.

Students who plan to major in Chemistry are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor H. A. Iddles, Room 117, James Hall.

Economics

Students who are interested in economic and business life, but do not desire to specialize intensively in the Business Curriculum or the Secretarial Curriculum, are advised to consider registration as majors in Economics. Students who intend to enter upon graduate study in Economics should plan to major in this field as undergraduates. An increasing number of opportunities in business and the public service are open to young people who possess graduate preparation in Economics.

Business positions in retail stores, chain stores, banks, sales organizations, general business offices, insurance, and other firms, have been successfully filled by graduates of the University who have majored in Economics. The Business Curriculum provides specific preparation for several of these fields by reason of its specialized requirements. A student who desires breadth in his education, with an emphasis on Economics, is counselled to major in the Department.

The Department is equipped to furnish the preparation necessary for teaching Economics in secondary schools. As very few positions are available in any year for teaching Economics alone, a student should consider a program of study which may qualify him for teaching Economics and other social studies, and should consult the supervisor, and Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education.

Students who major in Economics are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 94. They are required to complete successfully Economics 1-2, Principles of Economics; and Economics 31, Economic and Business Statistics. They are required to complete 24 semester credits of Economics, with grades of C or better. Of these 24 semester credits, a minimum of 12 credits must be in courses in Economics numbered 51 or higher. Major credit towards the 12 semester hours required in courses numbered above 50 will be approved in the case of transfer students only if such courses have been taken as upper division courses, i.e., in the junior or senior year. Individual programs will be arranged to meet the needs of the individual student. Business Administration 1-2, 21-22, 68, and 70 may be counted for major credit in Economics. Business Administration 68 and 70 may be counted in partial fulfillment of the requirement that 12 semester credits be in courses numbered 51 or higher.

Students interested in a major in Economics should consult with the supervisor, Professor C. M. Degler, Room 104, Morrill Hall.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Education

Students who are interested in preparing themselves for teaching in the secondary schools and who do not desire to follow any of the University Teacher Preparation Curriculums should consult with Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education, Room 3, Murkland Hall. Under most circumstances it is possible for such students to prepare themselves for teaching as majors in the subject matter department in which they desire to teach. (See page 87.) In other instances, it may be wise for them to do their work as majors in Education.

One group majoring in Education does so to prepare to teach in secondary schools. They are required to complete 24 semester credits in Education, with grades of C or better, which must include a minimum of six semester credits in supervised practice teaching and a minimum of 15 semester credits in Education courses other than practice teaching. These students are also required to complete, with an average grade of at least C, (1) a teaching major of at least 24 semester credits of post-secondary school work in a subject matter field, and (2) either a second teaching major of at least 18 semester credits, or two teaching minors of 12 semester credits each.

A second group of majors in Education is composed of those students who are interested in teaching or in supervising in elementary schools, and who are graduates of two- or three-year normal schools or teachers colleges. They are required to complete, with grades of C or better, 12 semester credits of work in elementary education selected from the advanced courses in that subject offered in the Summer Session as a part of the total credits which are required of them as candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts. Such students will select the remainder of their major program with the advice and approval of the Chairman of the Department of Education. (See special Language requirement, page 94.)

While some courses offered in Education are designed to be of interest to the general student, only those students who have definitely decided to prepare themselves for the teaching profession should seriously consider majoring in the Department of Education. All students, before entering Education 58, are required to take a battery of teacher aptitude examinations.

Professor T. O. Marshall, Room 3, Murkland Hall, is supervisor of all majors in Education. Arrangements will be made, however, to enable majors in Education to be advised in particular problems by members of the staff who are best qualified to be of service to them.

English

The Department of English offers two programs of study: the Literature major and the Teaching major.

I. The Literature major must fulfill the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum (page 94). He must also present six credits from among the following courses:

English 13, 14
English 15, 16
English 25-26

English 33, 34, 35, 47
English 43, 44, 45

He must earn grades of C or better in 24 semester credits in literature courses numbered above 50: of these, 6 credits must be in Shakespeare (English 57, 58); 6 credits in American literature (this requirement may be satisfied by English 15, 16, but the 6 credits thus earned cannot be counted toward the 24 major credits); and an additional 12 credits in at least three centuries of English literature prior to the twentieth. He must read the works of English and American literature that appear on the Department Reading List which will be issued to him. He may elect either to cover this material in tutorial sessions or to take written examinations upon it. On request he will be given copies of previous examinations.

II. The Teaching major must meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum (page 94) and the state certification requirements for teaching. He is, also, required to take the following courses:

English 13,14	English 36
English 16	English 43, 44, and 45
English 25	English 57 or 58
English 27	English-Education 91
English 22, 33, or 48

Students who are interested in majoring in English should consult with the supervisor, Professor S. H. Bingham, Room 118, Murkland Hall.

Entomology

The Department of Entomology offers various courses for students who wish to specialize in the study of insect life, insect control, and insects in relation to man. There are many fields open to those qualified in Entomology. There are opportunities for employment in public institutions and organizations, and in addition, there are many opportunities for employment with commercial and industrial firms which frequently employ college graduates who have majored in this field of study. Graduate study is desirable for the student who seeks high achievement in Entomology. A more intensive program in Entomology may be secured in the Prescribed Curriculum offered in the College of Agriculture.

Students who major in Entomology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, which are set forth on page 94. They are expected also to complete successfully courses offered by the Department, to a total of 24 semester credits, with grades of C or better. Courses in other departments may be counted with the consent of the major supervisor and the College Dean.

Outlines of specific suggested programs of study are available to the student upon request to the supervisor, Professor J. G. Conklin, Room 18, Nesmith Hall.

General Physical Science

A student having broad interest in physical science, but no professional objective in any one of the recognized sciences in this field, may register as a General Physical Science major.

Students who major in General Physical Science are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 94. In addition, they must obtain a grade point average of 2.3 or better in these courses: Mathematics 11, Algebra, 13, Trigonometry, 14, Analytic Geometry, 16, Calculus I, and 30, Astromony; Chemistry 3-4, General Chemistry, and 26, Introductory Qualitative Analysis; Geography 21, The Weather, and 22, Climates of the World; Geology 1-2, Principles of Geology; and Physics 1-2, Introductory Physics.

Students who are interested in choosing General Physical Science as a major should consult with the supervisor, Professor T. R. Meyers, Room 112, Conant Hall.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Geology

The field of Geology includes the earth sciences. This is not alone the study of minerals, rocks, and evidence of prehistoric life. It includes also the history of the earth from its beginning, as well as the evolution of the landscape, and other environmental features which have influenced the development of life on the earth, including man.

Students who are interested in the earth sciences, both those who expect to make some phase of Geology their life work, and those who desire to build a program of liberal studies around a core of geological and related subjects, are advised to register as majors in Geology.

The search for new sources of essential mineral resources and the development of new uses for certain minerals have emphasized the need for men trained in the earth sciences. Positions as mining geologists, petroleum geologists, mine operators, federal and state survey geologists, and university and college professors of geology and mineralogy have been successfully filled by graduates of the University who have majored in Geology. Other former major students are teaching in high schools or are in business, some in fields where their geologic preparation is useful, as in the cement and mining-machine industries.

Students who major in Geology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 94. They are expected also to complete Geology 1-2, Principles of Geology, and, in addition, courses in Geology or related courses approved by the supervisor and the College Dean to a total of 24 semester credits with grades of C or better. The courses of each major program are selected to meet the needs of the individual student, as determined by the student and his supervisor in personal conference.

At the end of the senior year, a student who majors in Geology must, after consultation with his supervisor, submit either a satisfactory paper or pass a written comprehensive examination.

Students who are interested in majoring in Geology are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor T. R. Meyers, Room 112, Conant Hall. After a student's major interest is determined, the advice, assistance, and counsel of one or more additional members of the Department will be sought where a special area of concentration is contemplated by the student. For example, the student whose special interest lies in geographic or meteorologic fields will be assigned to the staff members responsible for these fields.

Government

The courses offered by the Department of Government are designed to aid the student in gaining a knowledge of the nature, functions, and problems of Government, and of the place of Government in the modern world. For this general purpose, courses are offered in public affairs — local, state, national, and international. Some courses listed by the Department are chiefly intended to provide information needed for intelligent and responsible citizenship and to provide a part of a liberal education. Others are of a specialized nature and have been planned to provide basic preparation for professional work. A few are intended to stress the historical and philosophical development of the growth of political thought and institutions.

By specializing in one of several programs of Government, the major student may prepare himself for (1) graduate study in Political Science and Government, (2) Public Administration, (3) Research in Government, (4) the study of Law, (5) graduate study for the Foreign Service, (6) teaching

Government courses in secondary schools. Students who are preparing to teach Government courses in the secondary schools should check their planned program of study with Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education. Ordinarily, prospective teachers in government will find it necessary to teach related courses in the social sciences.

Majors in Government also have an unusual opportunity for mastering research techniques and gaining practical information concerning state and local government in New Hampshire through work as an "apprentice in government" (Government 60) or by a special project in government research (Government 65, 66). Students interested in serving an internship in an approved private agency with close ties to government may enroll in Social Science 81 with the permission of the Chairman of the Department of Government.

Majors in Government are expected to meet all requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum on page 94. All major students are required to take Government 1, Principles of American Government, and one of the following three courses: Government 2, Problems in American Government, Government 3, Elements of Political Science, or Government 4, America in World Affairs. Students who expect to major in Government are advised to register for these courses during the freshman year. Students majoring in Government are also required to complete a research paper approved by the staff. This project constitutes the chief part of the Research Problems course (Government 65, 66). A major consists of a minimum of 24 semester credits of work with grades of C or better in Government and in any related courses which may be approved by the supervisor and the College Dean. The 24 semester credits should include not less than 12 in courses above 50. Not more than 9 credits earned as an intern in Social Science 81 may be counted toward the completion of the major requirements. Each student will be counselled individually and his program of study planned for his needs.

Students interested in electing Government as a major should meet with the supervisor, Professor J. T. Holden, Room 204, Morrill Hall.

History

History as a field in which to major, may be of interest to the following groups of students: (1) Those who wish to do college teaching in History. Graduate study is indispensable for such work, but preparation may be made for it by a certain amount of undergraduate specialization. (2) Those who plan to teach History in secondary schools. For such a position, training in other social studies is highly desirable, if not absolutely necessary. The student is therefore advised to keep in touch with the Department of Education as well as with the Department of History, with a view to satisfying teaching certification standards and building a well-rounded program of studies. (3) Those who intend to enter other professional fields in which a considerable amount of historical knowledge is desirable. Such a field, for example, might be that of library training in which an historical preparation would rank with study in literature as a background, or the increasingly important profession of Archivist. (4) Any students who feel free to plan the college program without too specific reference to a vocation, and who have a special interest in History.

Students who major in History are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 94. They must also earn 24 semester credits in courses in History, with grades of C or better, exclusive of History 1, 2. They must elect a minimum of six semester credits from Group A and a minimum of six semester credits from

Group B. (See the description of courses offered by the Department.) A student who majors in History must prepare a satisfactory paper on a subject approved by the supervisor, in the student's field of concentration. The student must secure approval of the subject chosen, from the Chairman of the Department, before December 15 of the student's senior year and the completed paper must be filed with the Chairman of the Department before April 1 of the year in which the degree is to be granted.

Students planning to major in History should consult with the supervisor, Professor P. M. Marston, Room 204C, DeMeritt Hall.

History and Literature

Students who desire a broad education may take a combined major in History and Literature. Students who plan to enter library service may also find here a desirable major. The program of this major offers an opportunity to study the history and literature together of Greece and Rome, of France, of Germany, or of Spain. A still broader survey of European history and of its literature is also possible. The program involves the completion of 24 semester credits with grades of C or better in one of the following groups of courses, of which 12 credits should be in History and 12 in Languages:

- (a) History 11, 12, 13, 14;
Latin 5-6, 53-54, 55-56;
- (b) History 9, 10, 19, 20, 83, 84;
Spanish 5-6, 51, 52, 55, 56, 65, 66;
- (c) History 14, 19, 20, 83, 84;
French 5-6, 51-52, 53-54, 55-56;
- (d) History 14, 19, 20, 83, 84;
German 5-6, 53-54, 55-56, 57-58;
- (e) 6 credits in either Languages 1, 2 or 51, 52;
6 credits in French, German, Latin, or Spanish in courses numbered 5 or higher;

12 credits in courses in Groups A or B in the Department of History.

A student who has met the major requirements in History and Literature and other requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum as listed on pages 94 and 95 will be recommended for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts with the notation "History and Literature" on the Commencement program.

Students' registration cards may be signed by either Professor P. M. Marston, Chairman of the Department of History, Room 204C, DeMeritt Hall, or Professor J. S. Walsh, Chairman of the Department of Languages, Room 119, Markland Hall.

Students electing group (b), (c), or (d) will be encouraged to do a considerable part of their reading for the History courses in Spanish, French, or German, respectively.

Languages

A major student in the Department of Languages may have a professional or cultural objective. Many majors plan to enter secondary-school or college teaching. For such students there is no hard and fast curriculum. The arrangement of Language courses is sufficiently flexible to meet the individual's needs. As most language teachers are obliged to teach more than one language, or one language in combination with other subjects, students should not plan to concentrate in a single language and its literature, but to map out a program including two languages (preferably French and Latin), or one language with a number of courses in English or History. Students who may desire departmental recommendations for teaching a modern language should include French 13-14, German 13-14, or Spanish 13-14 in their major programs. Prospective teachers should consult the Chairman of the Department, Professor J. S. Walsh, and Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education. Some departmental majors plan to enter library service. Most library schools require two foreign languages.

Major students who do not plan to teach usually have a cultural objective. Here again the flexibility of the departmental offerings makes it possible to arrange individual programs for individual students. Some students find a special appeal in a single foreign literature and wish to explore it thoroughly. Others find that the study of two or three languages and literatures is a broadening and stimulating experience.

For non-majors, the Department offers practical courses which are a valuable aid to careers in foreign service (consular, diplomatic, commercial, military or naval), journalism (for international news, foreign books, and the like), interpreting, translating, travel agencies, radio announcing, etc. A knowledge of foreign languages is invaluable for the historian, the architect, the musician, the artist, the political and social scientist, and for any citizen who is interested in foreign affairs. The biologist, chemist, or physicist should always be able to read foreign articles and keep up with research in his field in foreign countries. As most graduate schools require a knowledge of one or two foreign languages, all students who may possibly do graduate work in any field should obtain a reading knowledge of French and German. The elementary courses in French, German, Italian, and Spanish are planned particularly to help students acquire an ability to read and to speak the respective languages; at the same time, through reading and oral work, the student learns something of the history, institutions, customs, and spirit of a foreign country. Latin is the basis of all language study and the study of the Romance languages in particular.

For non-majors, there are offered three courses which are given in English. These courses offer, respectively, a Survey of Greek and Latin Literature (in translations), a Survey of Modern European Literatures (in translation), and an Introduction to Romance Philology.

Students majoring in the Department of Languages must designate French, German, Latin, Romance Languages, or Spanish as their particular major. Elementary courses (French 1-2, German 1-2, Greek 1-2, Italian 1-2, Latin 1-2, and Spanish 1-2) cannot be counted for major credit. A major in a single language (French, German, Latin, or Spanish) must comprise a minimum of 18 major credits in a particular language. The remaining 6 credits may be earned in other designated courses in the Department. A major in Romance Languages must comprise courses in both French and Spanish (not including French 1-2 or Spanish 1-2) with a minimum of 12 major credits in each.

The special supervisor for majors in French is Professor C. S. Parker; for majors in German, Professor A. P. Danoff; for majors in Latin and in Romance Languages, Professor J. S. Walsh; for majors in Spanish, Professor R. A. Casas. All offices of the Department of Languages are in Murkland Hall.

Attention is called to the combined major in History and Literature.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Mathematics

Over and above the benefits to be derived from the study of Mathematics for its own interest, it is being recognized, ever more forcefully, that such study will give the student essential and invaluable equipment for any scientific pursuit. The courses in Mathematics are intended to provide a sound preparation in the fundamentals of the subject, as well as to offer a sufficient variety of subject matter to meet diversified interests. Courses are designed to prepare the student who majors in Mathematics for opportunities in various fields. Among them are (1) work in statistics, such as government agencies, business, life insurance, and the application of statistics to problems in Education, Economics, Sociology, Psychology, Medicine, and Genetics; (2) teaching mathematics in secondary schools; (3) graduate study for those students who are interested and especially proficient in their undergraduate work; (4) many industrial opportunities requiring mathematics for research in applied problems and consulting work.

All students who major in Mathematics must meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum as stated on page 94. They must complete at least 24 semester credits in Mathematics, with grades of C or better, including Mathematics 19. (Mathematics 2, 7-8, 11, and 13 do not count for major credit.) In order to satisfy sooner the prerequisites and to be better prepared for subsequent courses, a student expecting to major in Mathematics should plan, if possible, to complete the courses Mathematics 11, 13, 14, and 16 in the freshman year.

All students who are interested in a Mathematics major should consult with the supervisor, Professor D. B. Ames, Room 203, DeMeritt Hall.

Music

The Department of Music offers a major program in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum for students who desire to place an emphasis on Music while pursuing a broad, general program of study. The study of music history, literature, and appreciation gives the student cultural values which should enrich his entire life. Music study tends to increase understanding and appreciation of other fields, including the Fine Arts, Language, and Literature. Instruction offered in the Department of Music is designed to develop musicality (appreciation and general comprehension of music form), musicianship (musical taste and scholarship), ability to perform, and capacity to teach, supplemented by the general education required by the College of Liberal Arts.

The University of New Hampshire is an associate member of the National Association of Schools of Music.

Instrumental instruction and vocal instruction are given in private lessons. Class instruction provides for the pursuit of academic music studies. Student recitals, instrumental and vocal ensembles, Men's Glee Club, Women's Glee Club, the University Concert Choir, the University Symphonic Orchestra, and the University Symphonic Band afford both laboratory and concert experience.

Students who major in Music are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, which are set forth on page 94. They must also earn grades of C or better in all courses of the music major. The Department of Music offers the student three options in concentration leading to the Bachelor of Arts Degree with a major in Music. All students must take the basic theory courses, Music 9-10 (not to be counted for major credit), 11-12, 13-14, 15-16, and basic history course, Music 45, 46. The specific requirements of each option are given below:

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

I. An option stressing Music History: in addition to the above basic courses the following must be taken — 4 credits in advanced theory; 12 credits in advanced history and literature courses, 8 credits in Music 23 (Piano), and/or 26 (Voice).

II. Applied Music option, emphasizing training in voice, piano, organ, violin, woodwinds, and brass (a student choosing this option must take an examination before the staff of the Department of Music): in addition to the above basic courses the following must be taken — 4 credits in advanced theory or literature courses, 16 credits in Applied Music in principal field (2 credits per semester), a senior recital.

III. A theory option stressing musical composition; in addition to the above basic courses the following must be taken — 12 credits in advanced theory, 4 credits in advanced history, 8 credits in Music 23 (Piano).

Prospective majors in Music are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor K. H. Bratton, Room 101, Ballard Hall.

Philosophy

The Department proceeds on the assumption that Philosophy, which has sometimes borne the reproach of being impractical, is in reality very practical and can make its contributions to actual living. It is interested in the diffusion of the philosophic spirit among all students as well as in developing specialists in Philosophy. It proceeds on the belief that Philosophy is (1) an attitude, (2) a method, and (3) a body of knowledge which may greatly aid in the development of wisdom.

Students in any of the following groups may find Philosophy of value. (At present the Department does not offer opportunity for a major.)

1. Those for whom the greatest intellectual need is to become at home in the whole world of thought through an inclusive investigation of nature and man. Such individuals, equally interested in both the social studies and the humanities, but without a preference for either as a specialty, might find in the breadth and depth of Philosophy the field of partial concentration of greatest value to them.

2. Those whose interest in Philosophy, or in social or humanistic studies, suggests the teaching of Philosophy as a vocation.

3. Those planning to attend theological schools or to specialize in religious education.

Physics

The major in Physics is intended to prepare students for a diversity of interests in the application of this fundamental science. Broad in scope, the program provides electives so that a student may supplement his work in Physics by that in other fields such as mathematics and the allied sciences. The intermediate courses are purely theoretical in nature and are intended to give the student a thorough grounding in fundamentals in a particular branch of physics. Some of these courses are supplemented by appropriate laboratory work illustrating some of the basic principles. Opportunity is given in the senior year for the major student to do some elemental investigation of his own choosing under guidance. Graduates of this major are eligible for employment in the various industrial, government, and armed services laboratories or they may continue study in the academic field leading to more advanced degrees.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Students who major in Physics are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are described on page 94. They are required to complete 24 semester credits, in addition to the introductory courses, with grades of C or better, and must elect Physics 21-22 as the introductory course in place of Physics 1-2. Since proper preparation in mathematics is essential to a good understanding of Physics, the student must plan to elect in the freshman year, if possible, Mathematics 11, 13, 14, 16, in order to have the necessary prerequisites for Physics 21-22 and the courses that follow in both mathematics and physics.

Students who wish to major in Physics are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor H. H. Hall, Room 103, DeMeritt Hall.

Psychology

Some students may wish to major in Psychology for the purposes of understanding themselves and others more adequately and of gaining knowledge of scientific methods of studying human behavior. Others may not have these aims in mind but also may wish to specialize in Psychology to prepare themselves for one of the following professional objectives: (1) college teaching; (2) personnel work in industry or government; (3) supervision of psychological testing in mental hospitals, juvenile courts, city school systems, child guidance clinics, and the Federal Civil Service; (4) counseling and guidance in secondary schools and colleges; (5) clinical practice.

Students who contemplate major work in Psychology as a means of preparing for a profession should keep in mind the necessity of graduate work. For non-majors, a background of Psychology will be an asset in teaching, nursing, social work, business and industrial management or in professions such as medicine and law in which human relations are of primary importance.

Students who major in Psychology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum which are set forth on page 94. They are required to complete 24 semester credits with grades of C or better in courses in Psychology and in such related courses as may be approved by the supervisor and the College Dean. Psychology 95, Advanced General Psychology, and Psychology 98, Seminar in Psychology, are required of all majors. Psychology 57, Experimental Psychology, and Psychology 67, Statistics in Psychology, should be taken by all psychology majors who are planning for graduate work. A comprehensive paper on a subject approved by the supervisor is required. This paper is the core project in Psychology 98.

Students who wish to major in Psychology are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor H. A. Carroll, Room 202F, Conant Hall.

A graduate program of study is offered for those students who are interested in earning the Master of Arts degree in Psychology. (See the catalogue of the Graduate School for further information.)

Sociology

The major in Sociology is for (1) students who desire a liberal education with emphasis on study of the organization and differentiation of contemporary society, particularly study of the research methods developed in recent years for a better understanding of social phenomena; (2) students who intend to do graduate work in Sociology; and (3) students who plan to attend a graduate school of social work but prefer a broader choice of undergraduate electives than the prescribed Social Service Curriculum permits.

The Social Service Curriculum, with its supervised field work and its concentration on pre-professional courses, not only prepares students to enter graduate schools of social work but also has been quite successful, for a number of years, in preparing them for junior positions in social work prior to graduate study.

Students who wish to teach Sociology in secondary schools are advised that such teachers usually have to teach related social studies. Students with this vocational aim should consult with Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education.

Majors in Sociology are expected to meet all the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum (page 94). It is recommended that they take Sociology 1-2, Introductory Sociology: Principles and Problems, during their freshman or sophomore years. In addition, they must complete a minimum of 24 semester credits with grades of C or better in Sociology (or in any related course approved by the supervisor and the College Dean). Sociology 92, Senior Seminar, and Sociology 75, 76, Methods of Social Research, are required. At the end of the senior year they must pass a written comprehensive examination for which Sociology 92 is designed to prepare them.

Students who are interested in choosing Sociology as a major should consult with the supervisor, Professor R. E. Bassett, Room 206, DeMeritt Hall.

Zoology

Zoology is the science of animal life; the study of the structure, functions, development, and classification of the various animal forms. The student may major in Zoology (1) because of a general educational interest in the subject; (2) because of his avocational interest in nature study; or (3) to prepare for professional work in pure science or in Applied Zoology. Fish and game management, important in the conservation of our natural resources, is an example of Applied Zoology. Students who are interested in entering the fields of Applied Zoology should plan to secure advanced degrees since positions in these fields are difficult to obtain without graduate study. Undergraduate preparation for students who are interested in Applied Zoology generally should parallel that of any student planning to enter graduate work in Zoology.

The University of New Hampshire's location on tidewater and near the open ocean provides an unusual opportunity for the study of Marine Zoology and Marine Ecology.

All students who major in Zoology are expected to meet in full the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum (see page 94) with grades of C or better in 24 semester credits in Zoology. Related courses in other departments may be counted for major credit with the consent of the supervisor and the College Dean. Minimum course requirements for Zoology majors include: Zoology 7-8, Zoology 20 or 59, and Botany 3 or 6; eight of the 24 major credits must be in courses numbered 51-100. Zoology majors are also required to present credit for Chemistry 3-4 and a course in Organic Chemistry (Chemistry 45, 51-52, or Agricultural Chemistry 1). These courses in Chemistry cannot be counted as part of the 24 major credits.

Students who are interested in a Zoology major are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor W. L. Bullock, Room 107A, Nesmith Hall.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

OTHER PROGRAMS OF STUDY

Although pursuing his studies in the College of Liberal Arts in one of the major fields just outlined, the student may also prepare himself for some related objective which he may have in mind. Two of these are described below and there is enough freedom of election to make it possible for the student, in consultation with his supervisor, to arrange others.

Pre-Dental

Students who plan to enter a school of dentistry may follow the Pre-medical Curriculum (see page 84), or they may elect to major in almost any field offered under the General Liberal Arts Curriculum (see pages 66-80). The student's program should include courses in comparative anatomy, physics, and organic chemistry. Students who plan to enter a school of dentistry, either before or after achieving the bachelor's degree, are advised to consult with Professor W. L. Bullock, Room 107A, Nesmith Hall.

Pre-Law

While the bar association and law schools do not prescribe a specific undergraduate curriculum for future lawyers, they recommend that a student who contemplates entering law school should plan a study program which will develop breadth of view and facility of expression. They also urge him to acquire a background of information concerning the society in which he lives and the forces which have shaped modern institutions.

The courses considered most helpful are those developing oral and written expression, dealing with man's social, economic, and political institutions, providing an understanding of the human mind, and developing the art of thinking. Finally, since the case method of study is used in law schools, courses devoted to the intensive study of the subject matter are considered helpful as an introduction to the materials and the discipline which the student will experience in law school.

A number of law schools require the Law School Admission Test of students seeking admission; each law school will advise a student upon request whether or not he will be expected to take the test in partial satisfaction of admission requirements. Particulars on the examination may be obtained at the Department of Government, Morrill 204.

Students who plan to enter law school after graduation are advised to consult with Professor J. T. Holden, Room 204, Morrill Hall, as soon as they have made their decision.

PRESCRIBED CURRICULUMS

Several prescribed programs of study intended to provide preparation for business or professional life are available to students in the College of Liberal Arts. They are arranged in such a manner as to permit considerable specialization while conserving the breadth and general culture of the students enrolled in them. They are less broad and general, however, than the General Liberal Arts Curriculum. They are definitely professional in character. All Prescribed Curriculums lead to the degree of Bachelor of Science.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Business Curriculum

One curriculum with an option is offered in this field. (1) A curriculum for students who do not desire to specialize in any particular phase of business; (2) an option for those desiring to specialize in accounting. The Business Curriculum provides for general education as well as for professional preparation in business subjects. For students interested in marketing and distribution, in finance, or in labor and personnel administration, a list of courses in these areas is offered. Students may choose electives from these groups. Many of the graduates of the Business Curriculum are successfully filling responsible positions with accounting, banking, insurance, merchandising, and manufacturing concerns.

The Business Curriculum is planned to emphasize foundation or general courses in the freshman and sophomore years with specialization coming largely in the junior and senior years. The program is outlined on pages 98 and 99. Students registered for this Curriculum are held for the requirements expected of students in all Prescribed Curriculums which are set forth on page 96. Students pursuing the Business Curriculum must obtain grades of C or better in 24 semester credits from the following courses: Business Administration 1-2, 21-22, 23, 34; Economics 1-2, 3, 25, 31, 51, 53, 56; and English 35. Of the required courses in Economics and Business Administration, at least 12 semester credits shall be earned at the University of New Hampshire.

Students pursuing the Accounting option must obtain grades of C or better in 24 semester credits from the following courses: Business Administration 1-2, 3-4, 7-8, 21-22, 23, 55, 56, 57, 59, 68; Economics 1-2, 3, 25, 31, 53, 56; and English 35. Of the required courses in Economics and Business Administration, at least 12 semester credits shall be earned at the University of New Hampshire, and at least six of these semester credits shall be in accounting courses.

Students interested in registering for the Business Curriculum or the Accounting option should consult with the Chairman of the Department, Professor A. W. Johnson, Room 212, Morrill Hall. Those who elect either of the curriculums will be assigned to a member of the department staff who will act as supervisor for the duration of the student's course.

Hotel Administration Curriculum

Young men and women to whom a hotel career makes an appeal are invited to follow this curriculum. The inevitable condition of final success is continuous and arduous application, both mental and physical, to the many tasks actually performed in a hotel operation. We refer to the school of experience during the college period and following graduation, for which there is no substitute. On the other hand, there are many opportunities in the field for persons of earnest intentions. The hotel (and motel) business is an expanding one in which the personal growth toward proprietorship, or a position of responsibility in a chain hotel organization, largely depends on the ability and initiative of the individual.

There is no thought here to train a student for a specific hotel job, rather the curriculum is designed to provide him with some appreciation of the wide variety of subject matter demanded of today's hotel executive. In addition, work in the humanities, the social and physical sciences, aims to assist him to take his place in a world in which he will enjoy working and living.

The curriculum is so specialized that three college years are needed to fulfill the special requirements. Regular students should enter the curriculum no later than the fall semester of the sophomore year. Students transferring to this program after the sophomore year usually cannot expect to complete requirements in two years.

The basic work comprises four main divisions: Foods, Engineering, Accounting, and Hotel Management Problems. About three fourths of the total Curriculum is prescribed by the requirements of the Department together with the University and College requirements, leaving about one fourth of the time open for electives in allied subjects or others of the student's choice.

To be graduated from the Hotel Administration Curriculum, a student must have completed satisfactorily the requirements of all Prescribed Curriculums as set forth on page 96, the courses as detailed on page 100, and further he must have attained a cumulative grade point average of 2.4 or better in the following courses: Business Administration 9-10; Electrical Engineering 31; Hotel Administration 5, 26; Home Economics 15-16, 46, 49-50; and Mechanical Engineering 40.

To make certain that the hotel education program contains some experience under working conditions, each student is required to secure before graduation a minimum of 20 points of hotel practice credit in addition to the scholastic requirements of the Curriculum. This will be gained through work in hotels where supervision will be authorized, regular reports submitted by the students, and the grade of work reported by the employer. Each week of work will constitute one point. Not more than 12 points may be secured for any one type of work performed, nor more than 20 points from a given hotel.

Students interested in Hotel Administration are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor R. R. Starke, Room 105, Conant Hall.

Medical Technology Curriculum

There is now a large and increasing demand for Medical Technologists. Public health and medicine depend more and more upon the laboratory. Professional technicians are needed to perform various laboratory techniques and tests, such as blood typing, blood counts, tissue sections, urinalyses, and bacteriological and serological tests. Positions in this field are available in hospital laboratories, physicians' and surgeons' clinics, and in health department laboratories.

Students who are interested in becoming Medical Technologists should register in the prescribed curriculum in Medical Technology. In this program, students will take their freshman, sophomore and junior years' work at the University and their last year's work at the Mary Hitchcock Memorial Hospital School of Medical Technology, Hanover, New Hampshire. After satisfactorily completing the courses at the School of Medical Technology (Biology 61-62), the student is awarded 32 credits toward the Bachelor of Science degree. This program also qualifies the student for the examination for the Medical Technologist's certificate administered by the Registry of Medical Technologists of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. Thus a student can obtain the B.S. degree from the University and the M.T. certificate in a four-year period. Students who complete this curriculum are well qualified for work in any hospital, or medical laboratory (see page 101).

Students in the Medical Technology Curriculum must obtain grades of C or better in 24 semester credits from the following courses: Zoology 17, 20; Bacteriology 1, 8, 53; Chemistry 17, 45; and Agricultural Chemistry 56.

Students who in their junior year decide not to take the training program at the Mary Hitchcock Memorial Hospital School of Medical Technology will find it possible to transfer to a major in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum, such as Bacteriology or some other biological science. In such case, they would have to satisfy a language requirement which may be met by passing a reading test based on two years of language taken in high school or one year of college language.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Students interested in the Prescribed Curriculum in Medical Technology are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor L. W. Slanetz, Room 215, Nesmith Hall.

Nursing Curriculum

Any student who is interested in nursing as a career is encouraged to consider the Nursing Curriculum. It affords opportunity for examinations for registration as a nurse and enables the matriculant also to secure a college degree. The breadth of training beyond that usually received in a hospital training school is increasingly in demand, particularly for those who aspire to executive or supervisory positions. The Curriculum prepares for nursing and also permits the student some specialization in other fields related to nursing (see page 102).

The student must satisfactorily complete three years of work (a minimum of 96 credits) in residence at the University of New Hampshire, and graduate from a school of nursing approved by the University. The length of the training period will vary with the several schools of nursing.

A student registered in the Curriculum is held for the requirements expected of students in all Prescribed Curriculums which are set forth on page 96. This Curriculum is intended to precede hospital training.

Students interested in selecting the Nursing Curriculum are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor E. T. Richardson, Room 104, Nesmith Hall.

Occupational Therapy Curriculum

An ally to the medical profession, Occupational Therapy is any activity, mental or physical, prescribed by a physician and administered by a registered therapist to aid in the recovery or the rehabilitation of the patient.

The successful practice of Occupational Therapy requires not only thorough academic preparation but also suitable personality combined with judgment, dependability, tact, tolerance, patience, and will to serve. A high degree of mental and physical health is essential. Occupational Therapy requires physical vitality and emotional stability.

The course admits both men and women who can meet entrance requirements.

Before the beginning of the sophomore year, in the case of freshmen students who are interested in the Occupational Therapy curriculum (or before admission into this Curriculum in the case of students who transfer from other majors or from other colleges), a series of tests will be given to assist the supervisor in advising the student of his or her fitness for entering this Curriculum. (See page 103.)

Because of the highly specialized nature of the Occupational Therapy Curriculum, students are advised to enter this program not later than the beginning of their sophomore year; otherwise, they should expect to spend additional time in working toward the Bachelor of Science degree.

The Curriculum in Occupational Therapy is designed to satisfy the requirements of the American Medical Association as well as to offer a four-year course leading to the Bachelor of Science degree. This includes the theoretical subjects needed in the medical fields as well as a wide range of crafts and skills used in therapy and recreational, educational, and pre-professional subjects.

It is recommended that each student interested in the Occupational Therapy Curriculum spend one summer in an occupational therapy department in either a hospital or a crippled children's camp. This should be done before the student enters the clinical affiliation program.

At the completion of the requirements of the Curriculum, the student will spend a minimum of ten months in clinical practice in affiliated hospitals or services under the direction of a registered Occupational Therapist. When this internship is satisfactorily completed, the student is entitled to a Certificate of Occupational Therapy. The student is then qualified to take examination for registry in the American Occupational Therapy Association. The standard examination is sent out by the Association and administered by the University. A fee of $10 is required by the Association for each examination. While the present demand for qualified therapists is far in excess of the supply, there are relatively few job opportunities for those who have not completed the requirements for and entered the Registry of the American Occupational Therapy Association.

A clinical practice fee of $72 for residents of New Hampshire and $162 for non-residents of the state is payable to the University by those students who enter the clinical affiliation program.

Ten months of clinical practice in affiliated hospitals is divided as follows:

Psychiatric conditions — three months

Physical disabilities (surgical, neuromuscular, and orthopedic)
— two months

Tuberculosis — two months

Pediatrics — one month

General medicine and surgery — one month

One month of additional work in one of the above fields as arranged by the student and the supervisor.

The American Medical Association requires a physical examination including a tuberculin test prior to hospital affiliation.

Expenses vary during the period of clinical practice. Room, board, and laundry are given students by some hospitals; meals only in other hospitals; while some offer affiliations only. In all cases, the University must approve living arrangements for student affiliates. Students will furnish regulation uniforms which are required for clinical practice.

Students who are registered in the Curriculum are held for the requirements expected of students in all Prescribed Curriculums which are set forth on page 96, and in addition must obtain grades of C or better in the following courses: Zoology 17, 19, 20, 64; Occupational Therapy 41, 42, 44, 46, 49-50. Students interested in the Curriculum are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor R. B. McDonald, Room 216, Hewitt Hall.

Pre-Medical Curriculum

Young men and women who are interested in careers as physicians or surgeons may select the Pre-Medical Curriculum. Students who successfully complete this Curriculum will be eligible for admission to Class A medical schools. However, owing to the large number of applicants for admission to medical schools, usually only those students who stand in the upper third of their class can expect to be admitted.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

It is highly desirable that a pre-medical student secure a Bachelor's degree, although some medical schools do not require it as a condition of admission. The four years of pre-medical work will not only give the student a foundation for his future medical training, but will also give him an opportunity to secure the broad general education he needs.

The Curriculum is outlined in detail on page 104. Students registered in it are held for the general requirements of Prescribed Curriculums (see page 96). Students pursuing the Pre-Medical Curriculum must obtain a grade point average of 2.5 or better for the required courses in Biology, Chemistry, Physics, and Zoology.

Students who are interested in this Curriculum should consult with the supervisor, Professor G. M. Moore, Room 101, Nesmith Hall.

Secretarial Curriculum

A large number of college women find pleasant and profitable employment in secretarial positions in private, professional, commercial, and industrial offices. Although in most cases the initial appointment is to a subordinate position in an office organization, the breadth of the college education plus the secretarial skills acquired during the college course give opportunity for early assumption of greater responsibility.

Although the Curriculum is essentially semi-professional, it provides for a rather liberal number of electives with which to secure the general education so essential to success.

Women students who are interested in other aspects of business are advised to consider the Business Curriculum and those interested in less specialization are counseled to consider a major in Economics in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum.

Women who are preparing to teach commercial subjects in high school should consult the description of the Commercial Teacher Preparation program which appears on page 88.

The Secretarial Curriculum is outlined in detail on page 105. Students registered in it are held for the general requirements expected of students in all Prescribed Curriculums as set forth on page 96. Secretarial students must earn grades of C or better in the following courses: Secretarial Studies 3-4, 9-10, 17; Secretarial Studies 11, 13, 18 (unless excused in accordance with the statement below). In addition, secretarial students must earn a C grade in 4-11 credits (to make a total of 24 semester credits) of work in the following courses: Secretarial Studies 22, Advanced Transcription; Secretarial Studies 23-24, Business Writing; Economics 3, Economic and Commercial Development of the U.S.; Business Administration 1-2, Elementary Accounting; Business Administration 21-22, Commercial Law; or Business Administration 24, Introduction to Business.

Students transferring from collegiate institutions and high-school students with previous training in Secretarial subjects are required to take the following courses: Secretarial Studies 3-4, 9-10, 17; Secretarial Studies 11, 13, 18 (unless excused). These students may be excused from:

Secretarial Studies 11 by passing a 40-period certificate test.

Secretarial Studies 13 by passing a theory and practice test on each of the machines taught.

Secretarial Studies 18 by giving satisfactory evidence of having done acceptable secretarial work in a business office for one year. "One year" shall be interpreted as not less than 50 weeks of full-time work. Full-time work done continuously for two weeks or more may be counted toward a year's work. Part-time work of less than 30 hours a week may not be considered. Only part-time work of 30 hours a week or more done continuously for at least 6 weeks may be counted toward a year's full-time work. The number of hours of acceptable part-time work will be divided by 40 to find the equivalent number of weeks of full-time work. (Work done for relatives will not be considered.)

Transfer and high school students who have had one year of Gregg shorthand (or the equivalent of one year) in another institution and have earned a grade of 80 or better (where the passing grade is 70) will not be allowed to enroll in Secretarial Studies 1 for credit; likewise, those students who have had one year of typewriting (or the equivalent) in another institution and have earned a grade of 80 or better (where the passing grade is 70) will not be allowed to enroll in Secretarial Studies 7 for credit (see below).

Secretarial students who have had Secretarial Studies 5 in the University of New Hampshire or a similar course in another collegiate institution, or one semester of typewriting in high school or preparatory school, will be required to enter Secretarial Studies 27 instead of Secretarial Studies 7.

Students interested in registering for the Secretarial Curriculum should consult with Professor D. E. Tyrrell, Room 4, Morrill Hall.

Social Service Curriculum

Social Service includes, among others, the following fields: family case work, child care, child placement, settlement and neighborhood house, institutional work for defectives and dependents, municipal and county relief work, probation, correctional school and prison service, Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. service, municipal playground direction, child guidance clinics, community chest work, rural community organization.

For full recognition in most of the fields of Social Service, it is becoming increasingly important for a man or woman to have completed the two-year professional course in a graduate school of social work. The best preparation for admission to such a graduate school is either (1) a broad liberal arts education with 40 to 60 hours of credit in the social sciences, including a major in Sociology, or (2) the Social Service Curriculum. For able students, scholarship aid toward meeting expenses of graduate study is sometimes available.

There is a continuing serious shortage of qualified workers in nearly all the branches of social work. For this reason, a number of students who complete the Social Service Curriculum find employment each year, in public welfare, group work, etc., before they commit themselves to graduate study. The Social Service Curriculum is almost unique among undergraduate pre-professional offerings of its kind in the opportunities it provides for field work. And so its graduates, who have entered employment directly after graduation, have an exceptionally fine record of success.

The program is outlined in detail on page 106. Students registered in it are held to the general requirements of all prescribed curriculums which are set forth on page 96, and in addition must obtain a grade of C or better in 24 semester hour credits from the following courses: Sociology 43, 44, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 95, and 97.

Students interested are advised to consult with the supervisor, Professor A. M. Nielson, Room 204G, DeMeritt Hall.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

PREPARATION FOR TEACHING

UNIVERSITY TEACHER PREPARATION CURRICULUMS

The University of New Hampshire has accepted the responsibility of preparing teachers for the secondary schools of New Hampshire and neighboring states. Two types of teacher preparation programs are offered. General Liberal Arts Curriculum students may follow an advisory program of studies called the University Teacher Preparation Program. There are also Prescribed Curriculums preparing teachers in the fields of Agriculture, Art, Home Economics, Music, and Physical Education. (See following pages.) Students interested in preparing for teaching are urged to become thoroughly familiar with the requirements of all the Teacher Preparation Programs before they make a choice of a particular program. This section of the Catalogue includes descriptions of Teacher Preparation Programs offered by the University, not merely those offered by departments in the College of Liberal Arts.

Courses in Problems in the Teaching of High-School Subjects

The courses in problems in the teaching of high-school subjects are listed on page 156 and are open only to students who have completed the course in Secondary School Teaching (Education 58) in addition to the courses in the subject and related subjects designated as prerequisites.* From these courses in Problems in the Teaching of High-School Subjects the student who plans to complete the University Teacher Preparation Curriculum selects his course in the field of his teaching major. To be eligible for Supervised Teaching in a subject, the student must complete the course in the problems of teaching that subject with a grade of at least C.

Courses in Supervised Teaching

The work in Supervised Teaching is under the direction of the Coordinators of Student Teaching. Students teach under the immediate direction of selected classroom teachers in high schools approved by the University.

In the Supervised Teaching courses the student participates in the conduct of class exercises and in the control of the classroom, at first chiefly as an observer, but gradually entering into teacher responsibilities until complete charge of the classroom is assumed.

This work is required in the University Teacher Preparation Programs, but will be open only to students whose applications are approved by the Chairman of the Department of Education and the Coordinators of Student Teaching in the subject or subjects in which the applicant desires to do supervised teaching. Applications should be filed in the office of the Department of Education on or before November 15 of the academic year in which the supervised teaching is to be done. No application will be considered unless the applicant has completed with a grade of at least C the following courses in Education: 41, 42, 52, 58, and has superior grades in at least 18 semester credits in the subject matter field in which he desires to teach under supervision.

The applicant must also complete with a grade of at least C a course in the problems of teaching the subject in which he desires to do supervised teaching.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

PRESCRIBED CURRICULUMS IN TEACHER PREPARATION

Agriculture Teacher Preparation Curriculum

A student electing the Teacher Preparation Curriculum in Agriculture must meet the general and specific requirements for a degree described on pages 34 and 35 applicable to all students registered in the College of Agriculture. His course of study will follow a broad general program rather than a specialization in any particular field. Furthermore, he must meet the state requirements for certification which include one semester of practice teaching, 14 additional credits of courses in Education, and 8 credits of Agricultural Engineering.

There is a rapidly increasing demand for teachers of Agriculture in our secondary schools. Local school boards are beginning to appreciate more fully the value of instruction in Agriculture, both for the boys who will engage in agriculture after leaving high school, and as electives to maintain the interest of those young men who may wish to take at the University further education in this basic industry. As a result, there are a good many positions open for young men who wish to make the teaching of Agriculture their profession.

For the suggested program for the sophomore, junior, and senior years, see page 52.

Art Education Curriculum

This curriculum is designed to prepare teachers and supervisors of art in the public schools. It is based upon the new demands for teachers who possess developed skills in the arts and a broad general culture in addition to a specialized preparation in Art Education. The satisfactory completion of the curriculum will satisfy the initial certification requirements for teachers of art in the public schools in New Hampshire and in other states maintaining certification requirements.

Freshmen who plan to enter this Curriculum should elect Basic Design and Drawing and Design (Arts 23-24) in their first-year program.

A grade of C or better must be achieved in all Arts courses required in the Curriculum.

Students who wish to prepare themselves to teach other subjects in addition to art can do so by using their elective hours for this purpose. Such a program should be worked out in consultation with Professor T. O. Marshall of the Department of Education.

Students registered in the Curriculum (see page 107) are held for the general requirements expected of students in all Prescribed Curriculums which are set forth on page 96.

Interested students should consult with the supervisor, Professor G. R. Thomas, Room 218, Hewitt Hall.

Commercial Teacher Preparation Program

This program is an option in the Prescribed Secretarial Curriculum and is not a prescribed curriculum in itself.

Students preparing to teach commercial subjects in high school should include in their freshman programs Secretarial Studies 7-8 and electives from Group III; in their sophomore programs, Secretarial Studies 1-2, Business Administration 1-2, and 24, Economics 3, Education 41, 42, and an elective from Group I; in their junior programs, Secretarial Studies 3-4, 9-10, 13, and 23-24, Business Administration 21-22 and Education 52, and 58; in the Summer Session between their junior and senior years, Commercial Subjects-Education 91, Problems in the Teaching of Commercial Subjects in the High School. Such students should enroll for 18 semester credits in at least one semester in order to have the second semester of the senior year free for supervised teaching.

Interested students should consult with the supervisor, Professor D. E. Tyrrell, Room 4, Morrill Hall.

Home Economics Teacher Preparation Curriculum

This curriculum is designed to prepare teachers of Home Economics for the secondary education program. See page 61 for the program outlined for Teacher Preparation in Home Economics. Satisfactory completion of this curriculum will meet the certification requirements for teachers of Home Economics in the public schools in New Hampshire and other states having certification requirements.

The Curriculum is outlined in detail on page 61. Students who are interested should consult with the Chairman of the Department of Home Economics, Professor A. M. Light, Room 209, Pettee Hall.

Music Education Curriculum

This Curriculum is designed to prepare teachers of music for the public schools. It is based on the new demands for teachers possessing sound musicianship and a broad general culture in addition to a specialized preparation in Music Education. This Curriculum satisfies the initial certificate requirements for teachers of music in the public schools in New Hampshire and in most other states.

To be admitted to this Curriculum the student must give evidence of having a sound musical background. Freshmen who plan to enter this Curriculum must elect Music 9-10 and four hours of Applied Music in their first-year programs.

A grade of C or better must be achieved in all Music courses required in the Curriculum.

Public-school music teachers must maintain a satisfactory standing musically with other professional musicians in the community and should be able to play or sing acceptably. For this reason 16 semester credits in Applied Music are required before graduation: 8 semester credits may be taken in one field, and 8 semester credits should be divided among other fields of Applied Music. In addition, all candidates must pass an examination in piano and voice which will demonstrate ability to perform acceptably:

Piano

1. Four-octave major and minor scales.
2. Two of the two-part Bach Inventions or their equivalent in difficulty to be drawn from the classic repertoire.
3. Play from memory any piece of moderate difficulty.
4. Read from sight simple accompaniments and four-part harmony.

Voice

1. Sing from memory two songs of moderate difficulty.
2. Sing creditably from sight a simple song.
3. Sing acceptably from sight any voice part of a choral composition.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Other Instruments

Music Education students must attain a minimum designated proficiency in one instrument from each of the following groups: brass, woodwind, string, and percussion. These various requirements may be removed by special examination if the student is sponsored by the instructor in the field in which the examination is to be undertaken.*

Recitals

Students enrolled in the Music-Education Curriculum must accumulate a minimum of 24 points in the sophomore, junior, and senior years. Attendance at each concert or recital constitutes one point.

All Music-Education candidates must take a voice and piano audition at the end of the junior year, and an oral comprehensive examination covering all fields of music preparation before entering upon practice teaching.

The Curriculum is outlined in detail on page 109. Students who are interested should consult with the supervisor, Professor D. M. Smith, Room 206, Ballard Hall.

Physical Education Teacher Preparation Curriculum (Men)

For men students who plan to prepare themselves for positions as teachers of Physical Education or Directors of Physical Education, the University has organized the Physical Education Teacher Preparation Curriculum for Men (see page 111). This curriculum will enable men to prepare themselves to teach in two subject matter fields as well as in Physical Education. It is open to men who have satisfactorily completed the freshman year, and are approved by the Department of Physical Education for admission to Physical Education as a field of concentration. A grade of C or better must be achieved in Physical Education 23, Principles of Physical Education; Physical Education 61, Problems of Teaching in Physical Education; Physical Education 65, Administration of Physical Education in Secondary Schools; and in 24 semester credits in the second teaching major.

This Curriculum requires the satisfactory completion of a second teaching major of 24 semester credits and a teaching minor of 12 semester credits in subjects taught in high school. Students who are interested in this program should consult with the supervisor, Professor C. Lundholm, Room 5A, Field House.

Physical Education Teacher Preparation Curriculum (Women)

For women students who plan to prepare themselves for positions as teachers of Physical Education or for positions in Recreation, the University has organized the Physical Education Teacher Preparation Curriculum for Women (see page 113). This Curriculum will enable women to elect, at the end of the sophomore year, the Physical Education option or the Recreation Education option. Furthermore, students have the opportunity, if they so desire, to prepare themselves to teach in a subject matter field as well as in Physical Education. Finally, those interested in going into Physical Therapy after leaving the University, may by petition make approved substitutions in the program. The Curriculum is open to women who have satisfactorily completed the freshman year and are approved by the Department of Physical

* By permission of the instructor a student with less than the eight hours of required study may request faculty examination to satisfy a major instrument requirement.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Education for Women for admission to that field of concentration. It provides an opportunity to teach Physical Education and assist in recreation programs under supervision in nearby schools and recreation centers.

Students in this curriculum who are planning to teach in areas in addition to Physical Education are required to complete with an average grade of C or better a second teaching major of 18 semester credits in subjects taught in high schools.

For students choosing the Physical Education option, the following courses offered by other departments are suggested as valuable electives: Arts 4, Crafts; Bacteriology 5, Public Health and Sanitation; English 35, Public Speaking; Home Economics 84, Personal, Family and Community Health; Psychology 51, Psychology of Childhood; Psychology 47, Mental Hygiene; Music 33-34, Appreciation of Music; Sociology 1-2, Introductory Sociology: Principles and Problems; Sociology 43, Urban Sociology. Physical Education 24, Organized Camping, is also recommended. Students in this curriculum are advised to choose non-professional electives whenever possible. Those planning to enter graduate study should elect a foreign language. In the Physical Education option a grade of C or better must be achieved in 24 semester credits of the Physical Education courses required in the Curriculum.

A minimum of one summer as a camp counselor or playground leader is highly recommended for students choosing the Physical Education option.

Students choosing the Recreation Education option are advised to become skilled in at least two of these five fields: art, drama, music, outdoor education, or physical education. The following courses offered by other departments are suggested as valuable electives for recreation specialists: Arts; Music Education 91, Problems in the Teaching of Elementary School Music; English 35, Public Speaking; Government 1, Principles of American Government; Horticulture 27, Landscaping the Home Grounds; Physical Education 63, 64, Theory of Team Sports; Psychology 47, Mental Hygiene; Psychology 63, Differential Psychology; Sociology 33, Cultural Anthropology and Ethnology.

Recreation Education students interested in Forestry Recreation are advised to take Forestry 61, 62, Problems.

To make certain that the Recreation Education option contains some experience under working conditions, each student is required to secure before graduation a minimum of 8 points of community recreation or camping credit in addition to the scholastic requirements of the Curriculum. This will be gained through work in hotels, playgrounds, community centers, or camps where supervision will be authorized, two reports submitted by the student, and the grade of work reported by the employer. Each week will constitute one point.

The students in the Recreation Education option must complete, with a grade of C or better, 24 semester credits of the Physical Education, Arts, Music, Outdoor Education, and Drama courses offered in the Curriculum.

Under Physical Education 1, 11, 2, 12, 3, 4, 5, 6, Physical Education students are required to include certain activities in the section reserved for students in the P.E.T.P. Curriculum. During the freshman (or sophomore) year the student must register for one quarter each of the following, preferably in the order listed: hockey, tennis, basketball, badminton, volleyball, skiing, softball, and archery; in the sophomore year, tennis (intermediate), recreation workshop, elementary games, and golf; in the junior year, stunts and tumbling, folk and square dance, modern dance (elementary), modern dance (intermediate). Students in the Recreation Education option, in addition, must take gymnastics.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

For those who are quite highly skilled in the activities mentioned, substitutions may be made with the approval of the supervisor. Further dance and other activities not listed are included in courses for students in the Prescribed Curriculums.

Students who are following any Teacher Preparation Curriculum in the University are urged to include for Physical Education, American country dancing, folk dancing, social recreation, hockey, basketball, volleyball, and softball.

For information concerning this Curriculum consult with the supervisor, Professor M. C. Beckwith, Room 101A, New Hampshire Hall.

Guidance of Students Preparing to Teach

Students who come to the University of New Hampshire for the purpose of preparing themselves for the teaching profession should consult with the Chairman of the Department of Education early in their freshman year. Other students who are seriously considering teaching as a possible profession are urged to consult the Chairman of the Department of Education before making a decision.

While the University has organized curriculums designed to prepare students for the profession of teaching, it also recognizes that it is important that students be prepared to meet the teacher certification requirements of the states in which they may desire to teach. The Department of Education endeavors to keep its files of teacher certification requirements up to date. Students preparing to teach in states other than New Hampshire should, before the close of their sophomore year, consult the Department of Education concerning the requirements of the states in which they desire to teach and the most effective ways of meeting those requirements.*

A PLAN FOR INDEPENDENT STUDY

In order to stimulate the superior student and to develop his initiative, the Faculty of the College has approved a plan for independent study which will permit seniors who have demonstrated superior ability, to take a special program replacing in part courses usually taken in the senior year. Independent study enables a student to pursue intensive work in a limited field of study or to integrate the subject matter of two or more fields.

(1) A senior in the College of Liberal Arts may register for not less than 6 or more than a total of 12 semester credits of Independent Study for the year, provided: (a) his cumulative academic average at the end of his junior year is 3.0 or better, and (b) he has submitted a plan for Independent Study that has been approved by his Supervisor and the Dean.

(2) This student shall be called a College Scholar.

(3) A College Scholar who registers for Independent Study may not carry more than 18 semester credits per semester and is not relieved of any University, College, or Prescribed Curriculum requirements. Independent

* The requirements of the State of New Hampshire are 21 semester credits in education courses, including 6 semester credits in supervised student teaching, and 18 semester credits in one or more fields usually taught in secondary schools. For detailed information concerning requirements, consult the Department of Education, Room 3, Murkland Hall.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Study credits may at the discretion of the Supervisor be submitted in whole or in part for major course requirements in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum or for elective credits in a Prescribed Curriculum.

(4) A College Scholar who has registered for Independent Study will be assigned for guidance to a member of the staff of his major department or Prescribed Curriculum.

(5) A College Scholar pursuing Independent Study may either (a) work upon a project involving individual work, such as a long essay, a series of experiments, gathering and interpretation of data, creative writing, etc., or (b) prepare for a special comprehensive examination. (Such special comprehensive examination or paper may not be substituted for a required departmental comprehensive examination or paper.)

(6) The result of a College Scholar's activity under the program of Independent Study will be judged by three members of the Faculty, appointed by his supervisor from the staff of his department or curriculum or from related departments or curriculums or from both. (See page 189 for registration.)

REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREES

The degree of Bachelor of Science is conferred upon those students in the College of Liberal Arts who successfully complete the requirements of a Prescribed Curriculum. The degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred upon all students in the College of Liberal Arts who successfully complete the requirements of the General Liberal Arts Curriculum.

A student's candidacy for a degree will be determined by his satisfaction of the University, College, Major, or Curriculum requirements in force at the time of his admission to the College either as a beginning student or a transfer. A student may petition to satisfy the University, College, Major, or Curriculum requirements that may be in force at any time during his residence. Such a student shall be held, however, for all the academic requirements of the catalogue under which he seeks a degree; not a portion thereof. The new catalogue becomes effective on July 1 of each year.

Each candidate for a degree in the College of Liberal Arts must complete successfully 128 semester credits, and achieve a 1.8 grade point average in all courses completed in the University. In addition, he must complete the requirements given below and those of the major field, or prescribed curriculum, as stated in the preceding pages. Each student shall submit an application for a degree, bearing the signature of his supervisor and the College Dean, 12 months prior to the expected date of graduation.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

B. General College Requirements

1. SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS OF THE FRESHMAN YEAR

*a. English 1-2, Freshman English

*b. A biological science (Biology 1-2) or a physical science (Chemistry 1-2; or 3-4†; Geology 1-2; Mathematics 2, 13; 7-8, or 11, 13; Physical Science 1-2; Physics 1-2‡)

2. SPECIAL HISTORY REQUIREMENT (to be taken in the freshman year except students who are registered for the freshman program of the Medical Technology Curriculum)

*History 1, 2, Introduction to Contemporary Civilization

3. All freshmen in the College of Liberal Arts are assigned on registration to advisers who counsel them until they have officially selected major departments or prescribed curriculums. Official declaration of a major or a prescribed curriculum is accomplished by a special form which must bear both the adviser's and the supervisor's signatures.

4. Students in both the General Liberal Arts Curriculum and Prescribed Curriculums are advised against over-specialization. Although no attempt is made to limit by regulation the number of courses in a major or the professional courses in a Prescribed Curriculum, more than 36 semester credits in courses in the major department, or more than 66 semester credits in professional courses in a Prescribed Curriculum, are deemed to constitute excessive concentration. Supervisors will counsel students who seem to be concentrating to their detriment to elect courses more likely to contribute to the breadth of their education. The Dean of the College will consult with the supervisors with regard to over-specialization as it may appear in the programs of individual students.

5. Students are advised that a limited amount of credit earned in music organizations may be counted toward a degree. See Music Organizations in the Description of Courses.

C. General Liberal Arts Curriculum Requirements

Each candidate for a degree in the General Liberal Arts Curriculum must satisfy (1) the General University Requirements, (2) the General College Requirements listed below and those of the major as described in preceding pages.

1. SPECIAL LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

All students pursuing the General Liberal Arts Curriculum are required to pass a test of reading ability in Classical Greek, French, German, Italian, Latin, or Spanish. (Graduates of normal schools or teachers colleges who are pursuing the General Liberal Arts Curriculum for a degree in the field of elementary education are exempt from the language reading requirement.) One year of college study or two years of high school work (or equivalent practical experience) are

* Not counted toward fulfillment of Major or Group requirements.

† Chemistry 3-4 is required for pre-medical students and all who intend to take advanced work in chemistry.

‡ Students who expect to major in physics should not register for Physics 1-2 but elect sufficient mathematics to be able to schedule Mathematics 17-18 and Physics 21-22 in the sophomore year generally adequate preparation for this examination provided the student's experience in the language is recent. The examination is based on achievement of students after one year of college or two years of high school work and is a test of reading ability. It does not require translation into the foreign language, nor does it test vocabulary out of context.

In the event a student does not pass the reading examination, he must make a written application for permission to repeat the examination, showing that he has improved his preparation. This improvement may be made through registering for a course or through tutoring or supervised study. Application forms are available in the office of the Department of Languages, Murkland 118. The reading examinations are given four times a year: during Orientation week, before the examination periods in January and May, and at the end of the Summer Session.

2. GROUP REQUIREMENTS

A student whose major is included in Groups I, II, or III shall present for the satisfaction of that group requirement some course outside of his major field, one not offered in fulfillment of any other college requirement. A student may not offer in fulfillment of the Group I requirement the elementary course in the language in which he satisfies the special language requirement.

- I. A student must successfully complete a year's work (two sequential semesters) in this group.
 - a. Arts 31, 32
 - b. English 13, 14, or 15, 16
 - c. Humanities 1-2
 - d. Languages
 - e. Music 33-34
 - f. Philosophy
- II. A student must successfully complete a year's work (two sequential semesters) in this group (students electing a biological science during their freshman year must elect a physical science during their sophomore year, or vice versa):
 - a. Biological Science (Biology 1-2)
 - b. Physical Science (Chemistry 1-2; or 3-4; Geology 1-2; Mathematics 2, 13; 7-8 or 11, 13; Physical Science 1-2; Physics 1-2 or 21-22)
- III. A student must successfully complete at least 6 semester credits of course work in this group.*
 - a. Economics
 - b. Government
 - c. Psychology
 - d. Sociology

* Human Relations 1 may be presented in partial fulfillment of this requirement.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

3. DIVISIONAL REQUIREMENTS

The Student must meet such divisional requirements as may be established in the division in which he is majoring.

4. MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Each student pursuing the General Liberal Arts Curriculum may select at the end of the second semester of the freshman year, and shall select not later than the end of the second semester of the sophomore year, a major department in which he shall pass courses to a total of 24 semester credits with grades of C or better. Courses in other departments closely related to the major courses may be counted with the consent of the major supervisor and the College Dean. Departments shall designate in the catalogue in their description of courses those which will not count for major credit. In addition to satisfactorily completing (1) 24 semester credits in the major field and (2) the divisional requirements, each student, at the discretion of his major department, may be required to:

a. Pass a comprehensive examination in his major field

b. Prepare a satisfactory paper on a subject approved by his supervisor, in the student's field of concentration.

D. Prescribed Curriculum Requirements

1. A student registered in a Prescribed Curriculum must satisfy the General University Requirements and the General College Requirements described in previous pages.

3. A student pursuing a Prescribed Curriculum must meet the quality requirements established for that Curriculum. (See descriptions of the curriculums on preceding pages.)

REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREES

Baccalaureate Degree

Each candidate for a degree must complete 144 semester credits including the courses required in one of the four-year Curriculums, and achieve a grade-point average of at least 1.8. These degrees are: Bachelor of Science in Chemistry, Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Building Construction, Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Mathematics, Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering, and Bachelor of Science in Physics.

Professional Degree

Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering graduates of the University of New Hampshire with a minimum of four years of professional engineering experience subsequent to graduation are eligible to register as candidates for professional degrees in these three branches of Engineering. These degrees shall be granted after the acceptance of a suitable thesis and a review and approval of the candidate's professional experience. Further information may be obtained from the Dean, College of Technology.

CURRICULUMS

The College of Technology offers the following four-year Curriculums:

Building Construction Curriculum

This Curriculum, which is offered by the Department of Civil Engineering, is designed to give the student basic training and instruction in engineering and general building construction practice; to acquaint him with and to train him in the problems connected with the construction of light buildings and houses; to develop in the student an understanding of and appreciation for the relationships of the client, architect, engineer, builder, manufacturer, and public agencies in planning, designing, financing, and erecting public and private buildings. Inquiries for additional information should be directed to the Chairman of the Department of Civil Engineering. No one will be admitted to this curriculum who cannot complete the degree requirements by June, 1957.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Chemical Engineering Curriculum

Chemical Engineering is that branch of engineering which involves the application of chemistry, physics, mathematics, and fundamental engineering principles to the design, construction, operation, control, and improvement of equipment for carrying out chemical processes on an industrial scale at the lowest possible cost. The Chemical Engineering Curriculum, therefore, is designed to give the student basic training in the physical sciences, engineering principles, and economics, and thus enable him to become a member of this profession. Although Chemical Engineering is a distinct profession, chemical engineers are considered to be members of the chemical profession as well as of the engineering profession and a considerable portion of the Chemical Engineering Curriculum is devoted to the science of Chemistry. However, emphasis is placed not upon the laboratory phases of Chemistry, but upon the large-scale manufacture of chemical products.

Chemistry Curriculum

This Curriculum is intended to prepare the student for the career of a professional chemist in industry and to give a good foundation for further study in graduate schools leading to original and independent research.

Instruction is imparted by lectures, recitations, and carefully supervised laboratory work. The laboratory study is largely individual and the course work of each student is planned to furnish a broad knowledge of chemical science. The student may elect either German or French to enable him to read with ease the chemical literature, and he receives a grounding in Mathematics and Physics necessary for the later courses in Chemistry. In the senior year an independent research project, which permits the student to use the reference library and chemical periodicals throughout the course of the laboratory investigation, is undertaken.

Civil Engineering Curriculum

This Curriculum is designed to give the student theoretical and practical instruction in the principles on which the practice of Civil Engineering is based, and to give him the opportunity of applying these principles in the classroom, design room, laboratory, and field.

Civil Engineering, the oldest of the engineering professions, covers a broad field of activity, including structural, transportation, hydraulic, and sanitary engineering, and surveying by plane, topographic, geodetic, and photogrammetric methods. This Curriculum places about equal emphasis on each of the main branches.

Electrical Engineering Curriculum

The Electrical Engineering Curriculum is intended to meet the demands of young men fitting themselves for professional engineering in connection with the various applications of electricity.

Courses are presented by lectures, recitations, and laboratory practice in such a manner as to make the material of immediate service to the graduate, as well as to prepare him to understand the constantly increasing number of new developments in this field.

COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY

Mathematics Curriculum

The Technology Curriculum in Mathematics is intended to provide an education in the fundamentals of pure and applied Mathematics. It also affords a training in the sciences closely allied to Mathematics. Available for the use of the student is the reading room in DeMeritt Hall containing mathematical periodicals and books. This Curriculum offers a preparation which serves equally well for either graduate study or research in industry or research in the various government agencies. In the broader sense it aims to furnish a training useful in any scientific study.

Mechanical Engineering Curriculum

The Mechanical Engineering Curriculum is intended to meet the demands of young men fitting themselves for professional practice in Mechanical Engineering. The courses in the Curriculum are designed to give the student training in the basic physical sciences and in the fundamentals of engineering. Later courses apply the fundamentals to the practice of Mechanical Engineering. Throughout the Curriculum the theoretical work is supplemented by extensive laboratory practice.

Physics Curriculum

The Technology Curriculum in Physics is intended to offer basic training in fundamentals, supplemented by laboratory work, in the various branches of Physics. Opportunity is given in the senior year for experimental investigation in some of the fields of Physics under guidance of staff members. Such a curriculum prepares one equally well either for basic research in industry or the various government research organizations or for continued academic study toward the more advanced degrees.

Note — Agricultural Engineering is offered by the College of Agriculture (see page 52). Basic science and some engineering courses in the Curriculum of Agricultural Engineering are given by the College of Technology.

Alumni Representation

An Advisory Committee of Alumni of the College of Technology, composed of men in contact with industry and practical professional affairs, serves to keep the Faculty in touch with developments in the several fields which attract our graduates. Members of this committee also serve as consultants when important changes in curriculum, faculty personnel, and policies of administration are considered. The members are:

John T. Croghan, B.S. in M.E., '08, 574 Chestnut Street, Waban 68, Mass.
Donald B. Keyes, Ph.D., M.A., B.S. in Chem., '13, Arthur D. Little, Inc.,

The Graduate School

The Graduate School, which has offered instruction since 1903, has for its objective the bringing together of faculty and qualified students in a spirit of scholarship and research. The graduate student is given opportunity to specialize in some field of knowledge, and to develop a maturity of thought and attitude toward his professional field, so that both his professional and his cultural life are enhanced. Graduate work is offered by members of the University departments of instruction and research. The work of the Graduate School is under the general direction of the Graduate Faculty, composed of certain administrative officers, all department chairmen whose departments are offering graduate work, and all instructors who are offering courses numbered from 101 through 199 in any given year, inclusive of the Summer Session, or who are supervising graduate theses. The Dean of the Graduate School is responsible for the administration of the regulations and requirements pertaining to admission, conduct of work, the granting of advanced degrees, and other pertinent matters.

Degrees

Graduate programs are offered by the following departments: Agricultural and Biological Chemistry, Agricultural Economics, Agricultural Education, Agronomy, Animal Industry, Bacteriology, Biology, Botany, Chemical Engineering, Chemistry, Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Entomology, Forestry, Home Economics, Horticulture, Mathematics, Mechanical Engineering, Physics, Poultry Husbandry, and Zoology leading to the Master of Science degree; Economics, English, Government, History, Languages, Psychology, and Sociology leading to the Master of Arts degree; and Education leading to the Master of Education degree. A program also is available leading to the Master of Agricultural Education degree. Graduate programs are offered in the Departments of Botany, Chemistry, and Horticulture leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree.

Assistantships and Scholarships

Graduate assistantships are available in a number of departments. The work required may be in the nature of research, teaching, or general service. For information regarding assistantships, one should direct inquiries to the chairman of the department concerned.

A limited number of graduate scholarships are available each year. The recipient of such a scholarship is exempted from the payment of tuition. For information concerning scholarships one should direct inquiries to the Dean of the Graduate School.

Information

For detailed information concerning admission, requirements for degrees, description of courses open to graduate students, and other matters not covered here, inquiries should be directed to the Dean of the Graduate School. The Graduate School issues its own catalogue which may be obtained upon request to the Office of the Graduate School.

Description of Courses

EXPLANATION OF ARRANGEMENT

The title of the course is given in small capital letters; the arabic numeral designates the particular course. Odd numerals indicate courses normally offered in the first semester; even numerals indicate courses normally offered in the second semester. Arabic numerals enclosed in parentheses indicate that a course is repeated in the semester following. Thus course 1 (1) is offered in the first semester and is repeated in the second semester.

Every course is assigned to one of 22 examination groups. As all courses in the same examination group have their final examinations at the same time, a student may not register for two courses with the same examination number. Courses with examination group number 0 have no final examination, so that more than one course in this group may be scheduled by a student. For the examination group number of each course, see the time and room schedule on page 221.

Courses numbered 1-50 cannot be counted for graduate credit. Courses numbered 50-100 are for juniors, seniors, and graduate students. They are not open to freshmen and sophomores. Descriptions of courses over 100, which are for graduate students only, will be found in the Graduate School Catalogue.

Following the title is the course description and the name of the instructor. The next section gives the following information in the order indicated: (1) prerequisites, if any; (2) the number of hours of recitations or laboratory periods required each week; (3) the number of semester credits the course will count in the total required for graduation. Lectures and recitations are fifty minutes in length. Laboratory periods are usually two and one-half hours in length.

Abbreviations have been employed to indicate the number of hours of work required of students in lecture, recitation, and laboratory, and the number of credits given for satisfactory completion of each course. The abbreviations should be interpreted as follows:

Cr.	Semester hour credit
Lab.	Laboratory
Lec.	Lecture
Prereq.	Prerequisites
Rec.	Recitation

All courses (unless otherwise marked) are open to students who have passed the prerequisites.

An elective course will be given only when there is a minimum of five students registered.

If the numerals designating a course running through both semesters are connected by a hyphen, the first semester, or its equivalent, is a prerequisite for the second semester. If the numerals are separated by a comma, properly qualified students may take the second semester without having had the first.

Students must register for the number of credits or within the range of credits shown in the catalogue description of a course.

AGRICULTURE

A grouping of non-departmental courses

DEAN'S OFFICE, COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

1. ORIENTATION. A non-departmental course offering an opportunity to discuss matters not ordinarily reviewed in other courses of instruction. Attention will be given to selected student rules and regulations, scholarships, campus organizations and facilities, opportunities in agriculture as a science, and to programs of study. Also, federal aid as related to land-grant colleges and universities will be discussed. Mr. Richards. Required of first-semester freshmen in Agriculture, Forestry, and Home Economics. 1 lec.; 1 cr.

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE

3. PRINCIPLES OF COOPERATIVE EXTENSION WORK. The development, legal basis, description of projects and operations of field staffs, methods of influencing people through meetings, demonstrations, publicity, radio, and visual aids. Mr. Hoitt and other members of the staff of the Cooperative Extension Service. Open to juniors and seniors in Agriculture and Home Economics by permission of the instructor. (Alternate years; offered in 1956-57.) 2 lec.; 2 cr.

4. EXTENSION FIELD WORK. To provide practical experience in extension work, a limited number of Agricultural and Home Economics students may be permitted to do some supervised Extension work under the immediate direction of a member of the staff of the Cooperative Extension Service. This may be taken during the second semester of the junior or senior year. In some cases arrangements may be made for supervised work during the summer vacation period. Preference may be given to students who have taken Agriculture 3. Mr. Hoitt. 2 to 6 cr.

†23, (23). PIANO. The methods of presentation and the material used vary with each pupil and his degree of advancement. With beginners, training is given in the fundamentals of pianoforte technique and in the reading of keyboard music. As early as is practicable, emphasis is placed on musical values, musicianship, and sound piano technique. For this purpose, the literature employed is selected from the masters. Musical understanding is developed and quality of performance is stressed. With the attainment of advanced technique, the student's repertory is broadened to include works of all periods of literature: pre-Bach, J. S. Bach, C. P. E. Bach, Scarlatti, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, the romantic composers, the post-romantic, and present-day composers. Mr. Steele, Mr. Bartley, and Mr. DiCecco. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†24, (24). ORGAN. Students must possess reasonable keyboard facility before attempting the study of organ and should secure the permission of the instructor before enrolling for the course. The material used for the organ includes Graded Materials for the Organ by Rogers, preludes and fugues by Bach, sonatas by Mendelssohn, as well as compositions by contemporary American composers. Since the aim of the course is primarily to prepare students for playing in church services, emphasis will be laid on hymn playing and also on providing suitable organ accompaniment for soloist, quartet, or chorus. During the junior and senior years the larger compositions by Franck, Widor, and Guilmant will be studied. Mr. Bartley. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†25, (25). VIOLIN. The choice of literature and method in violin teaching depends entirely on the individual pupil's background and ability, therefore no single course of study is set up as a requirement for all pupils. Emphasis is placed primarily on musicianship and musical values, and the development of a sound, reliable technique is a means to that end. Technique is developed in these lessons not so much through exercise and drill as it is through the best in violin literature, using as material representative sonatas from Bach to Hindemith, concertos of Mendelssohn, Mozart, Bruch, Tschai-kowsky, etc., and numerous shorter solos. Mr. Bleecker. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†26, (26). VOICE. Instruction in voice will seek to develop those qualities which are essential for intelligent interpretations, such as correct posture, breathing, pure tone, resonance, clear enunciation, and technical facility. Each voice is given the treatment best suited to its individual needs. A higher ideal than the perfection of mere mechanical skill is sought, namely a musicianly style of singing and a thorough appreciation of the best works of the masters, both classic and modern. Mr. Bratton and Miss Barolin. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†27, (27). VIOLINCELLO, VIOLA, STRINGBASS. Since the literature for these instruments is somewhat more limited than that written for the violin, students are encouraged to arrange and transcribe material for their own use. Both the orchestral and solo literature for these instruments are studied, and the possibilities of the viola and bass as solo instruments are thoroughly explored. The basic beginners' method for cello is Dotzauer and for the bass is Simandl. The cello literature includes sonatas of Corelli, Franck, Grieg, Bach, etc., and concertos by Goltermann, Saint-Saens, Haydn, etc. Mr. Bleecker and Mr. DiCecco. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†28, (28). WOODWIND. Courses in the technique and literature of clarinet, flute, oboe, bassoon, and saxophone or any woodwind instrument are given. Mr. Owen. 1 or 2 lessons. 1-2 cr.

†29, (29). BRASS. Instruction is offered for any of the following instruments: trumpet, trombone, French horn, baritone, and tuba, or any brass instrument. Correct tone production, articulation, and musical interpretation are stressed. Mr. Smith. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

†30, (30). PERCUSSION. The study of the snare drum rudiments. The technique, tuning, and sticking of the pedal and hand timpani. Cymbals and all other percussion effects (claves, maracas, triangle, tambourine, wood-block, chimes, etc.). The playing of the glockenspiel, bells, or bell lyra, as well as xylophone is offered under this classification. Mr. Smith. 1 or 2 lessons; 1-2 cr.

† Students majoring in Music or enrolled in the Music-Education Curriculum are required to attend all student and faculty recitals as a part of the assigned work of their programs.

To be eligible for selection into the advanced phase of Air Force ROTC, the student must have a minimum grade point average of 1.8 and an Air Science grade average of C or better at the time of selection. Furthermore, the applicant must successfully complete the prescribed battery of Air Force Officer Qualification Tests. Under the present selection criteria very few students will be admitted into Advanced Air Force ROTC who are not physically qualified for, and do not desire, flight training. However, due to the existing need for Air Force officers with an engineering and meteorological background, students presently taking such courses are urged to apply for entrance into the advanced course.

A. S. 15-16. FIRST YEAR BASIC. This course presents an introduction to Air Force ROTC, the Air Force and its equipment and global mission, including introduction to aviation, fundamentals of global geography, international tensions and security organizations, instruments of national military security, military courtesy, element and mass drill, and other leadership exercises. A. S. 25-26. SECOND YEAR BASIC. More technical than the first-year basic course, this course considers the elements of aerial warfare, covering such topics as historical background, targets, weapons, aircraft, the air ocean and strategic concept, bases, and forces; careers in the USAF; leadership laboratory; cadet non-commissioned officers training. Minimum of three hours of formal instruction. 1½ cr.

A. S. 35-36. FIRST YEAR ADVANCED. A course designed to provide some of the fundamentals essential to optimum effectiveness of Air Force officers. The second semester is more technical and deals with Applied Air Science, to include aerodynamics, aircraft, engineering, navigation, and weather; Air Force base functions. Leadership laboratory as provided by command and staff positions within the cadet wing prepare the student for the summer training program which normally follows immediately after A. S. 36. During summer training the student will have the opportunity to become familiar with life on an Air Force base and obtain orientation flights in the latest type aircraft in the Air Force. Minimum of five hours of formal instruction. 3 cr.
